

WOMEN URGED TO ASSIST IN CONSERVATION OF RESOURCES

"As clubwomen, it is our responsibility to study, to know, to understand the conservation of natural resources; perhaps the least understood facet of our national economy is this problem of conservation," Mrs. Isaac Lehmer told members of the Adams County Federation of Women's Clubs at their fall meeting Wednesday afternoon at the YWCA.

Mrs. Lehmer, who is chairman of the conservation department of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, cited several booklets, pamphlets and films which are available to clubs giving interesting information on the problem of conservation in our nation.

"There is no substitute for conservation; it is not a day-to-day project, but a generation-to-generation task. Too many people are not aware of the tragedy of the misuse of our resources. Herein lies the challenge for every clubwoman," she said.

PROJECT 70

Mrs. Lehmer explained briefly Project 70, a proposed plan to develop and conserve the state's outdoor resources to meet the increasing demand for recreation in Pennsylvania. She also gave details of the project for placing roadside tables along the major highways.

"A good man leaveth a good inheritance for his children's children," was the biblical source for her closing remarks in cautioning the women to "be aware of the inheritance we are leaving in the way of our natural resources. We should be as concerned about conservation as we are about our churches and good

WOMEN TO JOIN NEW LUTHERAN CHURCH UNIT

Lutheran women of central Pennsylvania will become part of the recently constituted auxiliary of the new Lutheran Church in America when they hold their organizing convention at Trinity Lutheran Church, Camp Hill, Saturday, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Women from former United Lutheran Church congregations will join women from former Augustana Lutheran Church Women in becoming Lutheran Church Women of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church in America. It is expected that 600 delegates will represent their respective congregational women's organizations. Arrangements for the convention were made by a joint planning committee, headed by Mrs. Warren C. Heinly, Lancaster.

TO ELECT OFFICERS

Positions of president, vice president, secretary and treasurer will be filled by ecclesiastical ballot. Twelve members will be elected to an executive board. Adoption of a constitution and budget is also listed on the agenda.

Miss Dorothy Marple of Philadelphia, executive secretary of the general auxiliary, will lead a presentation of the purposes of the new group.

Two women from the now dissolved West Pennsylvania Conference will have responsibilities at the constituting convention. Mrs. Elmer P. Truchses is a member of the constitution committee for the new synodical unit and Mrs. J. Warren Light, former president of the West Pennsylvania Conference, is on the committee for conduct of elections. Both women are members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Carlisle.

CYCLIST JAILED

Henry J. Arnsberger, 32, 36 S. Queen St., Littlestown, was placed in jail in default of $500 bail Wednesday evening after pleading guilty before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, Cumberland Twp., to a charge of driving a motorcycle after his operator's license was suspended. The charge was brought by state police.

Police Check Assault Attempt

Borough police were summoned Wednesday afternoon at 12:40 o'clock when a man described as about 18 years of age, wearing a red shirt or sweater and with green or blue pants attempted to assault a six-year-old W. Middle St. girl in a garage.

A boy who had been playing with the girl was told to go away by the man and reported the incident. The man ran down the alley when adults appeared and police searched until 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon without finding the man. They received a report at 2:30 that a man appearing to be about 20 years old with a yellow shirt and red sweater, was seen entering a car with New York license plates on S. Washington St.

KERRIGAN IS NOT GUILTY; TO PAY COST

John E. Kerrigan, E. Middle St., steward of the VFW home here, was acquitted by an Adams County jury Wednesday afternoon on four charges of setting up and maintaining gambling devices in connection with the VFW-sponsored carnival here last spring.

The jury, however, directed that Kerrigan pay the costs in the case. Kerrigan had been arrested with Ted Cole Dembrocki, Delray Beach, Fla., and Harry Westbrook, Hollywood, Fla., managers of the carnival, because he was listed as "responsible" as the acting officer of the VFW Home Association in signing the contract for the appearance of the carnival here. The VFW was to receive a share of the profits from the carnival.

2 FINED $500

Dembroski and Westbrook entered pleas of "nolo contendere" to one of the three charges of setting up and maintaining gambling devices and District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter moved that the other charges be dismissed.

Judge W. C. Sheely immediately imposed fines of $500 each and the costs on the two Florida men. Kerrigan admitted that as an officer of the VFW he was at the carnival, but held that he had been informed that the carnival would comply with local regulations and had believed that the regulations were being complied with when the carnival managers closed a show when police suggested that it was not in keeping with the type of entertainment normally acceptable here.

Adams Native To Be 93 On Friday

Mrs. Beatrice Starry Slaybaugh, York, will observe her 93rd birthday Friday.

She was born in Heidersburg on October 12, 1869, the daughter of the late David and Elizabeth Haverstock Starry. She has been ill and confined to her room since July, 1959.

Mrs. Slaybaugh and her husband, the late Samuel Slaybaugh, moved to York in 1913. He was a grocer.

Mrs. Slaybaugh is the mother of four children, Mrs. Edna Lieberknecht, Mt. Wolf; Mrs. Esther Martin, Shippensburg; Mrs. Marvin Morningstar and G. Russell Slaybaugh, York.

Seventy-Two Adams County Churches Serve 20,127 Active And Inactive Communicants

Seventy-two Protestant churches in Adams County serve congregations totaling 20,127 persons, 15,946 of whom are active communicants, it was revealed in a recent survey conducted by The Gettysburg Times, with the cooperation of Rev. Otto Kroeger, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield.

Rev. Mr. Kroeger sent questionnaires to all the pastors in the county, and all but a few responded. They listed their active and inactive memberships.

The survey revealed the following figures: Trinity United Church of Christ, Gettysburg, Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, pastor, has 381 active and 500 enrolled members. The congregation was organized in 1790, erected its first church in 1851 and was first served by Rev. George Troidenier.

C. M. ALTEMOSE DIES SUDDENLY THIS MORNING

Charles M. Altomose, 65, Littlestown R. 2, farmer and carpenter and for the last 16 years maintenance man for the Carroll Shoe Company plant at Littlestown, died this morning at 10 o'clock in the Warner Hospital an hour after he had been admitted. A heart attack was the cause of death.

Mr. Altomose was a native of Monroe County and had lived in Adams County for the last 25 years. For 17 years before that he lived in Chambersburg. He had retired last July 1 from his position with the Carroll Shoe Company.

He was a veteran of overseas service in World War II and was gassed in one of the engagements in which he took part in France. He was a member of the American Legion Post of Littlestown.

SERVICES SATURDAY

Surviving are his widow, the former Jennie Boien, to whom he would have been married 43 years in November; a daughter, Mrs. Charles L. Fair Jr., Gettysburg, and a son, Richard L., also of Gettysburg. There are seven grandchildren.

These brothers and sisters survive: Mrs. Francis Altomose, Stroudsburg; Mrs. Susan Miller, Harrisburg; Mrs. John Mackles, Stroudsburg, and Roger East Stroudsburg. There are also a number of nieces and nephews.

Services at the Bender Funeral Home Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock with the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, officiating. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may call Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home.

SEEKS DIVORCE

Elizabeth Roberta (Leatherman) Motter, Gettysburg R. 2, is seeking a divorce from Herbert Hershel Motter, 509 Prince St., Littlestown, according to papers filed in the prothonotary's office by Attorney Daniel E. Teeter. The couple wed February 12, 1957, in Taneytown. According to the petition, Motter on June 10, 1957, was sentenced to up to six years in the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Camp Hill on a burglary and larceny charge. Indignities since March 15, 1957, are also alleged.

Conduct Fire Drills Today

Firemen went to all the town schools this morning and conducted fire drills and inspected boilers. Meade School was cleared in one minute; Xavier School averaged 57 seconds, some of the pupils having to go through Xavier Hall; High School, two minutes plus; Keefauver, 48 seconds, the older boys already being outside for exercise at the time; Lincoln, 50 seconds; Eisenhower, 55 seconds.

Participating in the drill and inspection were Sgt. David James, local state police barracks; George Naugle, chairman, borough safety committee; William Weaver, mayor; Donald Jacobs, borough fire marshal; Robert Hartman, first assistant fire chief, and Charles Kerrigan, second assistant chief. Firemen said they were "highly pleased with the drill and inspection and especially pleased with the 'housekeeping' done by Richard Tackett, superintendent of grounds and buildings for the Gettysburg public schools."

EXPAND CRAFTS

104 ENROLLED FOR EVENING CLASSES AT HS

With 104 enrolled as of Monday evening, the adult education program at Gettysburg High School continues this evening and Adult Education Director Jack R. Corbin made a number of announcements this morning concerning class plans.

Additional pupils are expected to enroll this evening, he said. The shorthand and typing students will attend their second class this evening, Corbin said. Bookkeeping students should report to classes of their second choice since an instructor for the class is not available at this time, Corbin said. Refunds will be mailed to pupils who have not expressed a second choice.

EXPAND CRAFTS

The Spanish class will meet next Monday evening and not this evening, he said. Oil painting and sewing classes will begin tonight and late registrations will be accepted then by the instructor.

The woodworking, drafting, water color and tinware classes are scheduled to begin this evening if they reach their minimum quota of 12 students by 7:30 p.m. All interested students and those already registered in these classes should report to their respective rooms at 7 p.m.

The drawing class has reached its quota and will meet on Monday as scheduled, the director said. Additional applicants will be accepted in drawing at that time.

Corbin also announced that the crafts course is being expanded to include metal, enameling and ceramics and will be offered on Wednesday evening beginning next week. Applications will be accepted up to that time.

J. ROSENSTEEL PASSES AWAY

John D. Rosensteel, 80, died at 5:15 o'clock Wednesday evening at his home, R. 1. He was stricken while seated in a chair and expired in 10 minutes.

He was born in Gettysburg, a son of the late George D. and Margaret Miller Rosensteel. He resided in the county all his life and was a stone cutter by trade. Twelve years ago he left his trade and for a time operated a souvenir stand. He was a member of St. Francis Xavier's Catholic Church. He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Clara Bricker, to whom he was married for 34 years.

Other survivors are the following children: Mrs. Charles Schriver, Littlestown; the Misses Margaret and Catherine Rosensteel and Thomas Rosensteel, at home; George Rosensteel, Dallas, Pa.; Mrs. Andrew Matoski, R. 1; Mrs. Pius Hess, Gardner; Mrs. Donald Grandenhour, Waynesboro; nine grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters: George Rosensteel, Mrs. Charles Rider and Frank Rosensteel, Gettysburg, and Mrs. Arthur Shields, R. 3.

Funeral arrangements by the Bender Funeral Home are incomplete.

2ND BIE DAY IS CONCLUDED WITH BANQUET

Gettysburg's second Business-Industry-Education Day climaxed Wednesday evening with a banquet at the Hotel Gettysburg with Charles L. Huston Jr., president of the Lukens Steel Company, as the guest speaker.

Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the affair, the businessmen hosts and a spokesman for the 133 teachers who participated agreed in terminating the day "most successful."

While school children enjoyed their third day of vacation this week, teachers spent Wednesday morning and afternoon with their hosts in local businesses and industries. Next year the plan is to have the businessmen visit the schools.

ESTEP TOASTMASTER

Julian N. Estep, president of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce, was toastmaster for the Wednesday evening dinner attended by 197 persons including the representatives of the 17 business places who hosted the teachers for the day and the concluding dinner.

Estep extended an official welcome and Richard A. Hartley, co-chairman of the BIE Day committee, thanked all who had helped to plan and carry out the BIE Day program. He noted there were 23 new teachers and four new hosts participating.

The invocation at the dinner was given by the Rev. Fr. Joseph P. Kealy, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, and the benediction by the Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ.

"ECONOMIC FREEDOMS"

As the dinner program concluded, Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegler, who had co-operated in the day's planning, said he had noted "more than considerable enthusiasm" on the part of the teachers for "the truly wonderful and remarkable experiences" of the day. He expressed the appreciation of the teachers to their hosts.

Lukens' President Huston addressed the group on "American Economic Freedoms, Climate for Economic Growth." He made early reference to the "Coatesville Declaration of Economic Freedoms" setting forth 10 basic economic freedoms, the first draft of which was presented in 1960 to then President Eisenhower.

Pointing to the Lukens Steel Company as "a prime example of the American enterprise system successfully at work," Huston listed these basic objectives of the company "which seem to live not only within the letter but within the spirit of our heritage of (Continued On Page 2)

Color Festival

Mother Nature in Adams County is wearing her most colorful and beautiful costume. Wherever one turns this area is at its most attractive stage. The flaming color of fall is all around. It provides a color photographer's paradise. It is easy to capture the glories of autumn on film, even by the rank amateur.

The mountaineers especially are blazing with every color the frosty tint of autumn can produce and for those who enjoy a leisurely ride of a Sunday afternoon we suggest a trip through Buchanan Valley; the Fairfield, Fountaindale section; the Aspers area, in fact almost any road will lead a motorist to the everchanging kaleidoscope of color.

The foliage of the county is like a festival of color and all the hues of a sparkling rainbow are at their best.

LOCAL FIREMEN REJECT OFFER TO HOST STATE CONVENTION

Gettysburg firemen Wednesday evening at a meeting in the engine house turned down an offer to host the Pennsylvania Firemen's Association 1963 convention here next September but indicated they would entertain the convention in another year, possibly 1964. The last time a state firemen's convention was held here was in 1906.

Raymond Menges, chairman of the 100th anniversary committee, announced that the committee will send cards within the next two weeks to all firemen, members of the auxiliary and the junior firemen asking them to signify on which committee they wish to serve and return the cards immediately. He said it is hoped that the committees can be set up within a month.

FESTIVAL REPORT

The report of the 99th Battle Anniversary committees showed a net profit of $10,971.57. The income was $11,321.84 but the committee spent $340.27 to provide "feeds" for the firemen, junior firemen and firemen's auxiliary, and others who assisted in the programs for the work done.

Returned also with the net receipts was $1,200 advanced at the beginning of the festival to cover expenses. The firemen immediately voted to advance $2,000 to the 100th anniversary committee as working capital.

Receipts of the committee were listed as $25,269.62, including the advance of $1,200; $3,350.03 from business collections; $2,356.30 town collections; $2,155.45 county collections; $2,385 other donations and $13,822.34 from the car-

PAIR WHO BEAT TURNKEY AND FLED JAIL IN '59 TO RETURN

Johnny Paul Washam, 29, of San Antonio, Tex., who escaped from the county jail December 6, 1959, is scheduled to be returned to the local institution.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter said, Virginia has notified his office that Washam, alias Watson, is now available after serving a term in the Virginia State Penitentiary at Richmond. Also available, the district attorney said, is Edgar A. Golden, 27, of Galveston, Texas, formerly of Gettysburg, who escaped with Washam.

Two others took part in the jail break. Earl Leo Miller, 34, of Spry, was captured before he was able to leave the jail. Guy E. Gross, 26, then of Gettysburg R. 1, was captured shortly after the escape.

BEAT TURNKEY

The escape occurred when Turnkey William E. "Johnny" Knox entered the cell block, following church services held there, to see that all prisoners had returned to their cells.

When Knox entered the cell block the men rushed him and Knox was struck with a broom handle by one of the men while Washam hit Knox over the head with an aluminum bar he had broken out of a window screen. Knox fell and the men tied him up. Knox, in addition to other injuries, suffered a broken leg.

The district attorney said Washam and Golden will "most probably appear for trial in February" on the jail break charge and on seven charges of burglary—for which they were waiting trial when they escaped in 1959. The men face charges of burglarizing the then Miller and Rose (Continued On Page 2)

WILL EXTEND SERVICES OF REV. HAGGLER

The chaplain service to migrants in Adams County, which was scheduled to end October 15 when the contract between the county and the state Council of Churches expires, will be continued until November 1.

Action to extend the chaplaincy service was taken at a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Adams County Council of Churches. The county council will finance the extra two weeks of service to the migrants.

A report on the work of the chaplain, the Rev. Joseph Hagglar, was presented to the board by the Rev. Maynard Barnhart, Arendtsville, who said: "The main purpose of this program is preaching the gospel and the chaplain has been conducting services three nights a week and on Sunday afternoons. There have been 104 camps in the county." A full report on the migrant program is to be presented at the annual meeting of the county Council of Churches in January.

APPROVE CHARGES

The directors of the county council have ordered the second and final payment of $845 to the state Council of Churches. Much of that money goes toward the migrant service.

Two Accidents Are Reported To Police

Anna Kay Hatfield, Gettysburg R. 1, reported to borough police Wednesday afternoon that her car had struck a sedan operated by Clair Taylor, Biglerville R. 1, in Lincoln Square at 12:15 o'clock. Damage was reported as slight, and all to the Taylor car.

Christine Hottinger, Gettysburg College, reported to borough police at noon Wednesday that while her car was parked on Seminary Ridge, at the Church of the Abiding Presence, a car driven by Kathryn Mayhall, 242 Chambersburg St., scraped her auto as the Mayhall vehicle sought to pass the parked car. Damage was estimated at $60 to the Hottinger car, according to the borough police report.

TO SHOW FILMS

Fire prevention films will be shown Friday and Saturday morning at the engine house. Groups and individuals who may wish to see them should visit the engine house and contact Donald Jacobs.

economic freedoms: First, to promote reasonable and improving corporate earnings through productive effort, applied primarily but not limited to the manufacture and sale of steel plate, steel plate specialties, fabricated parts and partially or fully assembled units, and second, to conduct the business in a manner that earns recognition as a constructive and honorable corporate citizen in its relations, designed to be mutually profitable with stockholders, employees, customers, suppliers, community and government."

TASK AND OPPORTUNITY

He continued: "Basically, risk taking for the opportunity of gain is the motivation for private enterprise. Our American economic freedoms provide a climate favorable to the exercise of individual initiative, to the productive use of private property and call for a minimum of government interference in private affairs."

"The teachers of earlier years have been an important continuing influence in the thinking, decisions and actions of today's businessmen. Such decisions and actions may have considerable impact on the welfare of our people and our country, either in strengthening or weakening the economic freedoms under which we have worked in the past. Yours is the opportunity and the task to shape the young minds of future businessmen."

"If industry and commerce and the educational profession strive successfully toward mutual goals of understanding and accomplishment under the American heritage, then when the drama of this century rings down its final curtain that curtain will not be of iron or bamboo or of sugar cane. Its fabric will be the cloth of freedom."

STEAK DINNER

The program followed a tenderloin steak dinner that ended with mint sherbet and wafers.

The Sisters of Mercy at St. Francis Xavier School, who took part in the day's events, were unable to attend the dinner because of a schedule conflict, it was announced.

The host businesses for the BIE Day included the Adams Electric Cooperative, Aero Oil Company, Columbia Gas of Pennsylvania, Inc., First National Bank of Gettysburg, Gettysburg National Bank, Times and News Publishing Company and WGET, Inland Container Corporation, Investors' Loan Corporation, Keystone Ridgeway Corporation, Metropolitan Edison Company, C. H. Musselman Company, Retail Merchants' Association, Thrift Plan of Penna., Inc., Town and Country Gas Service, U.S. Post Office and the United Telephone Company.

CAIRO (AP)—The deputy premier of the Yemeni rebel regime was quoted today as saying Yemen considers itself "in a state of war with Saudi Arabia" but his words were received with reserve here.

Shortly before the report came out of Yemen, the government of the United Arab Republic pledged all its resources to resist any attack on the rebel regime. It accused Saudi Arabia and Jordan of aggression on Yemen's northern frontier.

MAN SUFFOCATED

SKANEATELES FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—Several years ago Giuseppe Galoni of Syracuse, a 59-year-old laborer, was rescued after a cave-in in a ditch he was digging.

Wednesday, the dirt wall of an 8-foot-deep sewer ditch in which he was working collapsed and suffocated him.

State police said they found in Galoni's wallet a tattered newspaper clipping telling of the earlier rescue.

DeS. Wijenayake, 221 Desaram Rd., Mt. Lavinia, and Duket Wijeyaduru, Hermitage Rd., Candy, both wealthy tea growers from Ceylon, India, who are touring this country.

Miss Alice M. Snyder and Mrs. Howard S. Fox will give an illustrated talk Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at the church, using pictures taken by them this summer when they were in Nova Scotia and the Prince Edward Isles. The public is invited.

Harvest Home Service will be held Sunday at St. James Lutheran Church. Canned goods or other donations of food are to be taken to the church no later than 2 p.m. Saturday and the altar care committee will accept any items which might be used to help decorate the chancel. All donations will be taken to the National Lutheran Home in Washington.

William Warfield, baritone, will give a concert at DePaul auditorium, St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited. A donation will afford admittance.

The Annie Danner Club met at the YWCA Tuesday evening for a song fest. Cans of candy were distributed to members to be sold for their charity work. Refreshments were served. Next Tuesday M. Melchior Sheads will speak to the club on interesting highlights of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Kenneth Fissel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fissel, R. 2, was discharged Friday from the Elizabeth State Hospital, where he underwent corrective surgery on his left arm.

The Barlow Homemakers Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Mervin Benner Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The topic "Flower Arrangement" will be discussed by Mrs. Helen D. Tunison, home economist.

The Women's Civic Council will meet at the Moose home, second floor, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Chief of Police Jack Bartlett will discuss the work of the borough police department, following which "Is Smoking Worth It?" a recent film of the American Cancer Society, will be shown by Mrs. Henrietta Blocher, executive director of the Adams County unit.

Wedding

Phillips—Valentine

Miss Judith Margaret Valentine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Leroy Valentine Sr., Taneytown, and Fred Eugene Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll B. Phillips, also of Taneytown, were married Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Toms Creek Methodist Church in Taneytown. Rev. Martin Case, assisted by Rev. Delbert Hanlin, uncle of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Miss JoAnn Louise Walby, Rocky Ridge, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Betty Jeanne Sharrer, Rocky Ridge, and Judith Kay Valentine, Emmitsburg.

Franklin Leroy Valentine, Taneytown, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Jerry Haley and Ronnie Stouter, Emmitsburg.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church social room.

The couple will reside in Hagerstown.

The bride is a graduate of Emmitsburg High School and Hagerstown Business College. She is employed in Hagerstown. The groom is a graduate of Emmitsburg High School and is employed by Price Electric.

Clabaugh Elected CWV Commander

Joseph W. Clabaugh, mayor of Bonneville, was elected commander of the Bonneville Catholic War Veterans at the meeting of the veterans organization Wednesday evening.

John Legore was named first vice commander; Joseph Orndorff, second vice commander; Raymond Small, third vice commander; Dale Witherow, treasurer; Eugene Weishaar, officer of the day; Edward Smith, historian; Burnell Cease, medical officer; Stephen Sanders, welfare officer; Albert Kuhn, trustee; Alfred Smith, adjutant, and Rev. Fr. Louis Forjanz, chaplain. Robert Strassbaugh was elected president of the Home Association.

Plans were made to take part in the Veterans Day parade and exercises here November 11. A $10 donation was voted to the Gettysburg Halloween Committee and a $100 donation was made to the Sisters of St. Joseph's Building Fund.

Plans were announced for a meeting of the 16th District of the Catholic War Veterans October 21 at 2 p.m. at Columbia.

Is Charged With Throwing Garbage

A 10-day notice was sent Wednesday by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder to Stanley Rowland, Littlestown R. 1, notifying him that borough police have charged him with throwing, or permitting the throwing, of garbage on a public highway.

The charge follows an investigation by borough police into an incident Monday night in which tomatoes and paper thrown from a car on Buford Ave. struck the residence of Francis Hemler. Some of the refuse caused $5 damage to the screen door at Hemler's home, according to the police report. The police report showed four girls and two men in the car, all but one listed as juveniles. The report also showed that apparently the same car stopped in another part of town and attempted to urge a young boy into the vehicle.

STOCKS IRREGULAR

NEW YORK (AP)—Slow trading and narrow price movements marked an irregular stock market early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 218.9 with industrials unchanged, rails up .1, and utilities off .2.

Changes of most key stocks were fractional. Even among the usually volatile "growth" issues there were only a few movements of a point or so.

plans to enter pleas in the case and as a result only Kerrigan, who was represented by Attorney Gerald Walmer, was tried.

JUDGE AGREED

No word was given the jury concerning the expected pleas of the other two defendants. They were not called before the court until the jury had retired to the jury room to begin its deliberations.

They then agreed to enter pleas of nolo contendere to one of the four charges brought against them by Gettysburg College students who alleged they had lost money on gambling devices in booths at the festival. The district attorney agreed to dismissal of the other charges against them. The attorney for the two asked that they not have to share in the costs of the trial but it was not immediately determined whether they will be freed of those costs.

When the jury returned with its verdict of "innocent but pay the costs" in the Kerrigan case, Judge W. C. Sheely took the unusual step of telling the jury that the court agreed with its verdict.

Seeking Ex-Marine Buddy In County

Employees at the commissioners' office in the court house today were hoping to locate Robert Snyder, recently discharged from the U.S. Marines. Snyder, 6 foot, one inch, with black hair and blue eyes, and aged 24, served in Korea.

Wednesday Lee McKinney, Ashville, N. C., dropped into the court house in the hope he could find Snyder who had been a friend of his in the Marines. The clerks in the commissioners' office made a number of phone calls but could not locate a Robert W. Snyder. They hope someone knows his location calls the commissioners' office by Friday when McKinney is scheduled to drop in again on his return to Ashville.

BULLETINS

BOSTON (AP)—Eleven men, internationally distinguished in the business world, including a German motor car manufacturer, an airlines president and a pioneer in public opinion polls, were honored Wednesday at the Boston Conference on Distribution with induction into the Hall of Fame of Distribution. Included was Thomas B. McCabe, chairman and chief executive officer of the Scott Paper Co., and a major organizer of the marketing science institute.

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — The powerful University of Mississippi student judicial council meets today to map procedures for a hearing for six students who face charges in connection with rioting last week when James H. Meredith entered the university.

Each student will have a private hearing before the council. Since it was established in 1951 only one decision has been reversed.

Possible penalties include expulsion, suspension for no less than one semester, suspension with suspended sentence and probation. No names will be released unless a student is expelled.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The outgoing president of the Pennsylvania Medical Society says the State Department of Public Welfare discriminates against doctors. He also claims Pennsylvania has poorly implemented the federal Kerr-Mills Bill.

Dr. Daniel H. Bee of Indiana, Pa., said that while the department says present-day prices for other necessities received by public assistance recipients in Pennsylvania doctors are reimbursed "at an unrealistically low level."

County Will Sell Antiques, Building

The Adams County commissioners are going to have a public sale October 27 at 10 a.m. at the old county home and will sell, among other things, the old Cumberland Twp. election house. At their meeting Wednesday at the courthouse the commissioners decided to start the sale of "antiques and stuff" from the old county home at 10 in the morning. The list of objects to be sold includes, the commissioners said, "some actual antiques" and other items including a "trunk full of old fashioned straw hats."

The sale of the election house, which must be removed from the county home property, is scheduled to be at 2 o'clock that afternoon.

That district of Cumberland Twp. now votes in the garage at the jail.

SAYS SEWER SYSTEM IS DOING WELL

A summary of the first 11 months of Biglerville's sewer system was presented to borough council Tuesday evening by Engineer Tracey Greenland who said that "things have been going very well."

He noted that the system was in good shape as far as actual physical connections were concerned, with very few connections left to be made within the borough.

Greenland said rentals are coming in well and the whole financial setup is "excellent." He suggested that the borough attempt to get as many property owners, in or out of town, in the system, Greenland suggested that, if 15 or more property owners come in, the rates could possibly be lowered after the initial two-year period which is March of 1964. No rates may be lowered until then due to the lease agreement and the bond issue, he added.

DISCUSS RESPONSIBILITY

When asked about a malfunctioning bearing at the plant, Greenland said he felt that the manufacturer could possibly be at fault and said he would write them in connection with the replacement. It was noted that the contractor was to supply grease for a year for the bearing but Maitland Brothers had not done so at the time, so a local garageman provided the grease, a better grade than required, to squelch rumors that the bearing had not been properly greased.

The system is guaranteed for one year and council had objected to the blame of the malfunctioning being placed on them, Greenland said the engineers would be responsible only for any mistakes in design.

Council received a corrected bill from Maitland Brothers and approved a motion to pay $317. The Fohl payment matter was also dropped.

REPLACE STOLEN LIGHTS

The property committee reported that trees have been trimmed and the wink-o-lights have been installed at the school area in order to slow traffic down to 15 miles per hour. The lights will blink automatically from 7:45 to 8:45 a.m. and from 3 to 4 p.m. every school day. Council also decided to paint yellow lines on the curbing at the alley which comes out from the school to facilitate movement of traffic and for safety at this point.

The committee also said it has bought two kerosene lamps to replace two lights which had been stolen last month.

Council was asked by the Biglerville Garden Club to provide police protection and parking facilities October 30 for a special event at the high school.

AMEND 2 ORDINANCES

William LaRue, chairman of the highway committee, reported that some patching had been done on Third and Fourth Sts. and other areas of the town would be taken care of when the occasion arises.

The sewer committee reported that one connection still is lacking in the system and the operator, Paul Wagner, had resigned. Wayne Hill was hired to replace him.

Council passed two resolutions amending two ordinances. One gave council the power to make modifications in the sidewalk ordinance under certain conditions while the second would legalize stop signs at alleys 3 and 11 on the eastern side, alleys 12 and 20 on the western side and at Penn St. and W. Hanover St.

Bills were approved for payment, including $6,927 to Emrich Construction Co., York, for street improvements in the borough and $612 was withheld from the Emrich check pending further work on two streets.

President George Eckenrode presided at the two and one-half hour session. All council members were present.

Bermudian School News

Bermudian Springs High School students went over the top with a total of $3,272.09 in their magazine sales campaign which concluded last week. They exceeded their goal by $272.09 with some sales still being reported after the official closing date.

Junior Donovan Meyers was the final high salesman in the campaign, with a total of $205.42. Eighth Grader Kenny Miller was second with $164.31. Sophomore Parker Lerew was third with $154.01, and Eighth Grader Philip Aldinger was fourth with $81.93.

Sophomore Darlene Wagner and Parker Lerew both won $10.00 in the tenth day drawing of the campaign. Students' names were submitted each time they sold $5.00 worth of magazines.

For exceeding the goal set by the representative of the Look magazine campaign, the students will receive a free film showing.

TAKE COLLEGE COURSE

Seniors Pat Green, Joy Neidig and Dick Wolf have enrolled in the course in general linguistics from Elizabethtown College being shown over WGAL-TV Friday mornings at 9 a.m. Professor Henry Libhart teaches the course. The seniors will watch the 14 programs, do selected outside reading assignments, and take written examinations at the college Nov. 17 and Jan. 12. The course offers one college credit.

Norman Maisel, a graduate of Gettysburg College, is student teaching in English this semester under the direction of Dr. Russell Rosenberger, of the Gettysburg College education department and Mrs. Lizzie Gary Davis, of the Bermudian Springs English department. Maisel is also coach of freshman football at Gettysburg College.

The faculty and senior class proofs from the Ensminger Studios arrived Thursday.

CHOOSE CLASS FLOWER

The lily of the valley was chosen as the class flower at the senior class meeting Thursday, Oct. 4. The class made plans for the "Get-Acquainted Hop" set for Oct. 12.

English teacher Robert Boltz and librarian John Korver will direct the senior class play. Both Boltz and Korver were college members of the National Honorary Dramatic Society (Alpha Psi Omega) and have directed several plays.

schools. What we have in conservation depends on us — whether it is good or bad, we will have what we demand and what we deserve.

FOUR THEMES

Mrs. A. Bruce Dennison, vice president of the South Central District of the Pennsylvania Federation, outlined the major projects for the year. She said that the theme of the year for the General Federation of Women's Clubs is "to strengthen the arm of liberty." In a survey asking leaders of women's clubs over the nation the question "what is the greatest challenge to the United States, and what particular thing should the federation focus its attention upon?" the four answers which appeared most frequently were (1) complete and thorough knowledge of the country; (2) study of the tax system; (3) better literacy programs here and abroad; and (4) a better understanding of educational problems. She urged all the women to take an active interest in American Education Week, and make a special effort to become more familiar with the problems facing the schools.

SUPPORT PROJECTS

She urged club support of the Federation projects which include a campaign against obscene literature, international scholarship fund, safety belt campaign, uterine cancer testing, and the community improvement program.

She also stressed the state project for the year, "Project Alert" a campaign to "alert . . . educate . . . legislate."

Mrs. Lehmer and Mrs. Dennison were introduced by Mrs. William A. Lentz, president of the County Federation, who presided during the afternoon business session. She also introduced Mrs. Homer Biddle, a guest from Altoona.

Mrs. John A. MacPhail, of the music committee, introduced a string ensemble of students from Gettysburg College: Charles Blikle, cello; Charles Mallory, piano; and Andrew Wildrick, violin. They played "Two Guitars," a Russian gypsy folk song; "Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni, and "Hungarian Dance No. 5" by Brahms.

BENEFIT PARTY

Mrs. R. D. Wickerham, chairman of the ways and means committee of the Woman's Club of Gettysburg, announced that the benefit card party will be held at the next meeting, November 14, at the Moose home. She announced that Mrs. Wilmer Bream and Mrs. Paul L. Roy will be in charge of the cake table, and asked that all those who were willing to donate a cake may notify them. She also announced that any one who wished to donate a gift to be used for a door prize may call her or a member of the committee.

Mrs. Lentz expressed her appreciation to the members of the garden committee for the many flower arrangements; Mrs. Harold Schuh is chairman of this committee.

Mrs. Lentz and Mrs. Guile W. Lefever, president of the Woman's Club of Gettysburg, presided at the tea table.

Hostesses for the meeting included: Mrs. Robert E. Berkheimer, chairman, Mrs. Roy Hamsher, Mrs. Raymond Powell, Mrs. Richard Allewelt, Mrs. Jay P. Brown, Mrs. J. Floyd Slaybaugh, Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. I. Z. Musselman and Mrs. George Zerling.

recommendation of the Rev. Otto Kroeger, Fairfield Lutheran pastor and chairman of the Christian Education division of the county council, a reorganization proposal for the leadership training school that has been conducted for years with sessions being held each spring. It will continue to operate under the joint supervision of the Christian Education Division of the county Council of Churches and the Adams County Sunday School Association.

The Rev. Mr. Barnhart was appointed to represent the Council of Churches on the Council of Community Services. A $3 contribution was voted to the Council of Community Services.

The Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, president of the county Council of Churches, presided at the board meeting.

was entertained by "Chalk talker" Bob Wood. Originally from Los Angeles, Wood works for the school assembly program at Rochester, N.Y., and performs in schools from coast to coast.

The program consisted of four drawings, done in colored chalk, of the Creation, Huckleberry Finn, a setting in India and a senior student, Dick Riggs. Riggs was portrayed astride a space rocket as Wood described the planets a space traveler might visit. Wood gave commentary as he drew each picture.

Wood further demonstrated his abilities by writing correctly and upside down words suggested by students and drew cartoon faces from names also suggested by students.

Two LHS Seniors Win Commendation

Two Seniors at Littlestown High School have been honored for their high performance on the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test given last spring. Each student who is endorsed by his school receives a formal letter of commendation signed by his principal and the president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Frank E. Basehoar, the school's principal, said the commended students are Philip H. Close and Fred E. Snyder.

John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, said: "About 28,700 students throughout the country are being awarded letters of commendation in recognition of their excellent performance on the qualifying test. Although they did not reach the status of semifinalists in the current merit program, they are so capable that we wish to call attention in this way to their achievement and academic promise."

"The semifinalists and commended students together constitute about two per cent of all high school Seniors. This certainly signifies noteworthy accomplishment by all of these bright youngsters."

Pope John

The Pope gave no direct indication of how he thought future unity might be achieved. But in the past he has made clear that he considers the way to unity is through the return of "separated brothers" to the Roman Catholic fold.

The historic first meeting of the council ended at 1:10 p.m.

The next gathering, a working session called a general congregation, will be held Saturday.

RING 400 BELLS

From over the globe more than 2,500 cardinals, archbishops, bishops, patriarchs and other prelates gathered around Pope John XXIII for this first general church council in nearly a century.

As the great bell of St. Peter's boomed the glad tidings of the council opening, the bells of Rome's more than 400 other churches took up the message.

Pope John and his bishops opened the council with prayers for guidance and a Mass exploring the aid of the Holy Ghost.

Rich red velvets hung from the basilica walls, setting off the white robes and mitres of the bishops sitting in two tiers of seats flanking the main aisle.

CHOIRS SING HYMNS

The sweet smell of incense filled the basilica. In alcoves choirs sang hymns to the Virgin Mary. Hundreds of arc lights lit the basilica to noonday brightness. Under the heat of the lights, many prelates wiped their brows.

Seated near the Pope's throne in a place of honor were observers from non-Catholic churches. The Pope has said he hopes the council will bring progress toward Christian unity.

Tens of thousands of Romans, priests and tourists collected in the vast square before St. Peter's to watch the colorful procession that began the spectacular five-hour ceremony.

MAY LAST YEAR

It was a rare show. Only 20 previous ecumenical councils have been held in the 2,000-year history of the church. The last was in 1870.

Pope John and his prelates have been preparing for the council for more than three years. Its deliberations may last a year.

Long before the procession started, the church's honored guests—observers from the non-Catholic churches and delegations sent by more than 80 governments—took their places inside the basilica.

The observers came from the Anglican, Presbyterian, Lutheran, and other Protestant churches. None were here from Orthodox churches which rejected the Vatican's invitations.

XMAS LIGHTS ARE PLANNED BY CHAMBER

President Marvin F. Breighner presided at a general meeting of the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce held on Tuesday evening in the Alpha engine house. A committee for the annual Christmas lighting and decorating was appointed as follows: Wilmer Dutterer, Paul M. Bowman and John Guise. The retail merchants committee will be in charge of arrangements for the visit of Santa Claus to the community and the treat for the children. The committee consists of Samuel H. Higginbotham, chairman, A. Richard Geisler, Clarence R. Reck, Samuel Harnish, Edward A. Sheets, Merle Breighner, Mrs. Dorothy Hartlaub, Charles H. Fissel, Lester F. Berkheimer, Paul L. Hollinger, W. Richard Marshman, W. H. Dern, James Herring, Edgar E. Yealy and John N. Guise.

Committee reports were heard from R. J. Stonestree, Industrial Development; Melvin L. Houston, Civic Improvement. Plans were advanced and approved for a new appreciation program to be conducted by the local merchants.

LOCAL FIREMEN

Expenditures totaled $15,298.05 including: $288.63 for advertising; $900 for fireworks; $116.25 paid the Ladies' Auxiliary; $1,210 parade expenditures; $1,160.83 special expenses; $80.10 Sunday night program; $250.63 firemen's "feed," $31.46 Junior firemen's "feed," $68.18 auxiliary "feed," $8,991.97 carnival expenses including costs of new equipment etc. for the recreation field and dining hall; advance to the fire company treasurer, $1,000.

Francis Smith and John Codori, the fire department's delegates to the state convention, reported a request of the Gettysburg firemen that the state be asked to give notices to fire companies of detours and their location was approved at the convention.

CHIEF ISSUES WARNING

The firemen voted to again conduct the annual Muscular Dystrophy drive here. William DeHaas, Herbert Bowling and Martin Crabill were named as the committee.

Named as the nominating committee to report next month were Robert Heyser, Donald Staub, Samuel Small, Martin Crabill and Francis Smith.

A leave of absence was granted Sebastian Hafer who has moved to Camp Hill.

Fire Chief Robert Hartman warned the firemen to be careful about using aluminum ladders on buildings with aluminum siding. He reported an incident in New Jersey where the siding of a house had become electrified when insulation on the main line into the house had worn off. When a fireman attempted to put a metal ladder against a burning building both fireman and ladder were hurled away.

Edmund James Baker, John C. Irvin, Robert John Snyder, Richard Shetter and Harry L. Stonestree were enrolled as members.

Plans to place the fire company radio transmitter on E. Cemetery Hill were reported by Menges.

Robert Neary, chairman of the 99th Battle Anniversary Committee, expressed his appreciation to all who helped in last year's festival.

Vice president S. Charles Smith presided in the absence of president Ray Culp who was called away by a death in his wife's family.

Richard Knox, Charles Kranias, Walter Lane, John Lawyer, Francis I. Linn and William Little were named to the duty roster for November.

Plans were made for the annual father and son banquet of St. John's Lutheran Church at the October meeting of the Men's Brotherhood held on Monday evening at the church. The banquet will be served by the women of the church on Monday, November 12, in the church social hall. Committees for the affair include: Tickets, Lester H. Myers, Raymond Reed and Raymond Reinman; entertainment, John R. Bloom, Kenneth Bortner and James U. Bowers.

The gathering was in charge of Edgar E. Yealy, president, and opened with prayer by the pastor, the Rev. William C. Karns. It was decided that the group will finance the project of placing a light between the choir rooms. The electrical work will be done by James Dutterer, a Brotherhood member. Thanks were extended to all who helped with the work of moving the partition between the Sunday school rooms, which has been completed. The group will now consider the best way to line the church parking lot. Reports were heard from John Morehead, acting secretary, and Glenn E. Unger, treasurer. At the conclusion of business, refreshments were served by John Morehead.

Concert Dinner Tonight: Committee members, team captains and workers of the Gettysburg Concert Association will assemble at a dinner meeting at the Hotel Gettysburg this evening at 6:30 o'clock to complete plans for the membership campaign that gets underway Wednesday morning. The captains include: Mrs. Earl Bowen, chairman of the membership committee, Mrs. Thomas L. Cline, Mrs. Carrie Stauffer, Mrs. Frank Kramer, Mrs. J. E. Sanderson, Mrs. Paul Kinsey, Mrs. Lester Johnson, Mrs. Rudolph Rosenstengel, Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler and Parker Wagland.

Mrs. Edward Orwig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther I. Sachs, Locust Ave. has been elected to the teaching staff as instructor of piano at Dickinson Junior College, Williamsport. Mrs. Orwig will continue with her duties as organist and choir director at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Williamsport. The Rev. Dr. Howard Gold, son-in-law of Dr. M. Coover, Springs Ave., is pastor of the church. Mrs. Orwig attended the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music for two years and was graduated from Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove. Her husband is taking basic training for officers' training at Fort McLehlan.

Mrs. Raffensperger To Recover: Mrs. Rosalie Raffensperger, wife of Harvey B. Raffensperger, Arendtsville, was reported to be progressing satisfactorily at her home today after her discharge from the Warner Hospital on Tuesday where she had been a patient for 141 days. She stood the trip home well, her physician reported. Mrs. Raffensperger, who has been on leave from the local Public Assistance office as county supervisor, was critically burned in a cleaning gas explosion in the basement of her home on Tuesday, May 19, while she was engaged in dry cleaning curtains. She was admitted to the hospital that day and remained there for 20 weeks and a day. Her condition remained critical for weeks and her physicians and family several times almost lost hope of her recovery. Complete recovery is expected. She is able to spend part of each day in a wheel chair.

Keefeauver Heads Training Center: Pennsylvania State College announced Wednesday that Lloyd C. Keefeauver, superintendent of the public schools, has been appointed to the position of administrative head of the Gettysburg Engineering War Training Center to be opened here next week by Pennsylvania State College. Nearly 60 prospective students registered here last week for courses to be given in the extension school.

Greenstone Hits New Scrap Mark: Greenstone set a new scrap mark collection and now leads the county in per capita weight collection. O. H. Benson, county chairman of the salvage committee, announced today. From the residential area in that community the scrap collecting committee gathered four tons and two hundred pounds of scrap. From the Blue Ridge Pipe and Nipple Co. an additional fifty-two tons and eight hundred pounds of scrap was gathered, making a total of fifty-six and one-half tons of scrap from the Greenstone community. "This is the largest collection of scrap, per capita, we have received thus far in the county reports," the chairman stated. M. W. Willis is chairman of the Greenstone committee.

Trinity Circle of Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church met Tuesday evening at the church for the purpose of packing boxes for the 23 boys of the congregation who are in service. The president, Mrs. Lester Scott, presided.

Two new adult home economics clubs will be organized at meetings to be held next week.

Today's Talk

HOLD FAST YOUR YOUTH

As your youth ebbs, your power recedes. Age, however, is not a criterion of youth. For youth flows in the brain.

Hold fast your youth. With enthusiasms, with fired faith, grip it.

Let the sunshine in. Think beyond the clouds. It may be but a matter of hours when there will be no clouds. Clouds are but vapors things away.

Think constructively. Plan your day. Then adhere to the plan. Do not dally.

Time is always new. And so you may be by thinking ahead. By living ahead. By being ahead. As said James Russell Lowell: "New occasions teach new duties. Time makes ancient good uncounted."

In your time there is play and prattle. In man and woman time there is play — prattle must be gone. But youth must remain. It must remain if the world shall go on. It must remain if service and influence are to lock aims and treat together.

So, hold fast to your youth. Youth is so good. Youth is so strong. Youth is so magnificent. But remember this, youth is not years, but living.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "You Are A Messenger."

Just Folks

MAN AND HIS WAYS

Strange man. He'll take the blows of fate.

And never wail or cry aloud. By losses that are truly great. He'll stand unbeaten and unbowed;

To weaken under failure's weight He's much too manly or too proud.

When pale and frightened he should be. He'll calmly bend his back to care. An exhibitionist is he Who shrugs his shoulders at despair;

He'll stand at times when he should flee. Because a crowd is watching there.

But when he homeward comes from town. No longer is he brave or bold. The slightest hurt can bring a frown;

His temper then he cannot hold; He'll turn the whole place upside down.

In rage because the coffee's cold.

He'll smile to see his money go. At poker he will lose a lot. And not a trace of temper show.

But, lady, guard the coffee pot! At you the cup he's apt to throw. Unless you serve it piping hot.

BOARD VOTED 23 TO 1 FOR SINGLE SCHOOL DISTRICT HERE

Directors of the Littlestown Joint School district Tuesday evening voted 23 to 1 in favor of recommending to the county board of school directors adoption of a one-district plan for the schools of the county, it was revealed today. The identity of the lone dissenter was not stated.

The board's vote was on the adoption of a committee report urging a single county school unit. The report was presented by the chairman of the public relations and personnel committee, Fred H. Hartlaub. The committee had met previously to discuss various plans for reorganization of the county under Act 361.

Board President Wilbur E. Mackley and Supervising Principal Paul E. King had attended a meeting at the county superintendent's office in September at which County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson presented a number of "possible" plans for reorganizing the county's school districts. Several of the plans provided for dividing the county into two districts but Plan C setting up a single unit, is the one the Littlestown board adopted.

ADMINISTRATORS OATH

Decision on the county plan will be made finally by the county board of school directors. The meeting, in charge of President Mackley opened with prayer by Charles E. Rabenstein and the following were in attendance in addition: Rex Maddox, Wade H. Brown, Charles W. Weikert, David S. Kammerer, Charles E. Ritter, Bernard Hess, Clair Arter, William Benson, Roy C. Snyder, Clyde Miller, Stanley Wolf, Glenn Bowers, Mrs. Rhoda Gitt, Fred H. Hartlaub, Dale W. Starry, Kenneth K. Kohn, George S. Worley, Richard A. Mailland, Richard Neiderer, C. Aaron Rohrbach, Karl P. Bankert and Ray Reichart, together with Principal King and Secretary Henry E. Waltman. The oath of office as school director was administered by President Mackley to Dale Starry, Union Twp.

The treasurer reported receipts of $47,942.33 and expenditures of $40,890.89. Salaries and bills were ordered paid. A communication revealed that the Mutual boiler inspector's report noted repairs to the Maple Ave. boiler are completed and satisfactory.

STATISTICS GIVEN

The financial and statistical data revealed the jointure budget to be divided among the five units in the district as follows: Germany Twp., $102,901.92; borough, $104,175.34; Mt. Joy, $45,370.39; Mt. Pleasant, $45,838.13, and Union, $109,450.22.

Enrollment by units is as follows: Elementary, Germany, 158; borough, 297; Mt. Joy, 68; Mt. Pleasant, 87; Union, 173; total, 693 and three nonresidents; junior-senior high school: Germany, 121; borough, 239; Mt. Joy, 55; Mt. Pleasant, 125; Union, 297; total, 577 and three nonresidents, with a grand total of 1,276 students in the jointure schools.

REPORTS PRESENTED

The administrative and accumulative report as presented by the supervising principal revealed 19 days taught at the close of the first month of school. A total of 751 students have subscribed to student health and accident insurance program. Approval for use of substitute teachers as now teaching was received from the state department.

The report of the high school principal, Frank E. Basehor, noted that all students have instructional supplies for each class and that changing of courses by students was discontinued after the second week of school. Four students from Gettysburg College are doing student teaching here. They are Thomas Shriener, boys' physical education, Jack Bream, master teacher; Miss Miriam Bowers, girls' physical education, Mrs. Kay C. Sentz, teacher; Russell Klouck, social studies, James L. Rhoades, teacher, and Mrs. Russell Klouck, French, Mrs. Rachael Barley, master teacher. A special assembly on gyroscope science by the Antrim Bureau was arranged for Junior and Senior high. There was also an assembly by administration-orientation. The club program was organized and there are 14 such activities every week, with every student enrolled.

GIVES MUSIC REPORT

Paul A. Harner's report for the music department showed the band has played for five football games. The Junior Band is preparing to play at the Spring Grove-Littlestown game on October 19 with the Senior High Band. Larry McGriff has 15 boys and 29 girls signed up for instruction in string class in the Fourth Grade, and 12 string players are being taught in the Fifth Grade. Mrs. Theresa C. Eshbach has eight pupils scheduled for organ practice. A Christmas program by Grades 5 and 6 has been scheduled in the Maple Avenue building on December 14.

at 7:30 p.m. All choral groups are meeting and public programs are planned.

Luther G. Myers, custodian, noted that the refrigeration units have been moved to the outside of the building as planned. Fire extinguishers have been checked and recharged. Shrubbery has been trimmed and outside floodlights have been replaced.

School Nurse Brenda B. Walker made 21 home calls during the month and 176 first aid treatments in school, of which six required further treatment by a doctor. Forty-four boys are participating in Junior High football and were given physical examinations by Dr. Leonard L. Potter, One Ninth Grade student is receiving home-bound instruction with Mrs. Mary Spalding as the instructor. The Mantoux tuberculin test was given in Grades One and Ten on September 24 with 215 tests given including 25 from St. Aloysius Parochial School, Dr. Harold R. Hand assisted Dr. Potter with the testing program and Dr. C. G. Christ, Gettysburg, checked the results on September 26.

ONE 1 JANCY CASE

Physical examinations in Grade Six are now being done by Dr. Potter. Fifty-one teachers and other school personnel received Asian flu shots on September 27 from Dr. Potter.

Ralph C. Unger, school policeman and truant officer, had one truancy call and was on duty at home football games and dances after the games.

John H. Riley, elementary principal, noted that the physical fitness program has been started and all students of Grades Four, Five and Six are participating. Donald Kump, in the Sixth Grade, is continuing a program begun last year. Jack Bream and Mrs. Sentz are supervising the program this year which is being conducted by the college student teachers. A PTA check for $300 will be used toward purchase of books for the libraries in the two elementary buildings.

TWO SUFFER BURNS

Mr. Riley also reports that all bus routes have been adjusted to accommodate as many pupils as possible. Several buses have two or three students more than there should be but absentees help to relieve the situation. Shields have been put on heater hoses following a break in one, which resulted in two children receiving minor burns from the water splashing from the heater. Eight new tires were purchased. A used motor is being sought to replace the one in the Chevrolet staff car.

Athletic Director John D. Bream, in addition to the varsity and junior varsity games being played, noted that this year a full program of intramurals is being presented to the student body. A kickball tournament for girls and a touch football tournament for boys are being held. All students have been issued basket, locker and lock for physical education class and all participating boys and girls are in uniform. The first battery of physical fitness tests will be given in a few weeks to each student.

GOALIE OPENS WITH SHUTOUT

Denis DeJordy is back at it and that's bad news for American Hockey League teams.

The Buffalo goalie, who led the league with eight shutouts last season and added two more in the playoffs, got the Bisons off to a winning Wednesday night—making 27 saves without a slip-up in blanking Providence 3-0.

DeJordy's shutout came in one of two games that opened the new AHL season. In the other, Montreal reject Terry Gray scored twice and led Cleveland to a 3-2 victory over Pittsburgh.

Gil Mavor of Providence matched DeJordy's tidy goal-tending for the first period and most

HOLD SURPRISE FAREWELL FOR REV. GARVIN

A surprise farewell party in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Garvin, arranged by the Ladies' Aid Society of Bart's EUB Church, was held Saturday evening at the church. Approximately 100 persons attended. Rev. Mr. Garvin has been serving this church and the EUB Church of Taneytown for 24 years. He has now assumed his duties as new pastor of the Rayville Charge.

A monetary gift was presented to their pastor by the congregation. A program given included: A hymn sing; accordion solo, James Riley; vocal duet, Mary Schue and Pauline Haugh; selections by the children present; readings, "The Preacher Doesn't Know," Miss Kathryn Karihuif, and "They Are Beautiful," Miss Janet Phillips; farewell address by lay leader, Lester Schue, and appropriate remarks by the Rev. and Mrs. Garvin. A social hour with refreshments concluded the evening's activities.

Bart's Ladies' Aid Society will have its regular meeting on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the church and it will be a combined harvest home and Halloween social. Harvest home items will be presented to the new pastor, Colin Schaeffer, who comes to serve the congregation from Dover. Services will be held every Sunday in the future, instead of every other week. Sunday School will be at 9:30 a.m. and worship service at 10:30 a.m.

AWARDS CEREMONY

The annual fall awards ceremony and Halloween party for Cub Pack 84 will be held on Tuesday, October 30, beginning at 7 p.m. in the fish and game clubhouse, near town. Cubmaster Alvin L. Stonesifer has announced that there will be a grand march and prizes will be offered the prettiest, the funniest, the ugliest and the most original costumes. Those Cub Scouts who have completed achievements for awards should have them in the hands of their den mothers by October 17.

Those boys who have not been contacted for fall meetings, due to the lack of a sufficient number of den mothers and who have earned awards, should give the necessary information to the Cubmaster by October 17. Six den mothers are needed and volunteers should contact Cubmaster Stonesifer as soon as possible.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, will sponsor a public party on Friday starting at 8 p.m. in the social room of the F.O.E. home.

The Primary Department of Christ United Church of Christ will serve a roast turkey supper, family style, in the church grove hall on Saturday starting at 4 p.m. The affair is for the benefit of the building fund.

of the second at Buffalo. Then Eddie Kachur cracked the scoreless tie with his first of two goals. He got his second with about four minutes remaining in the game and Cliff Schmaltz added an insurance goal in the closing two minutes.

Gray reported to the Barons only a few hours before game time from Montreal and the 24-year-old forward quickly made himself welcome with the first two Cleveland goals. Bill Masterton scored the other Baron goal, while Howie Glover and Claude Laforge scored for Pittsburgh—the latter with only 18 seconds left in the game, which was played at Cleveland.

LADIES' AID MEETING HELD

The Ladies' Aid Society of Redeemer's United Church of Christ met Tuesday evening in the church hall when the devotions included: Apostles' Creed repeated in unison; group hymn, accompanied by Miss Carol Flinchbaugh; scripture, Mrs. Paul H. Stonesifer; prayer, Miss Blanche Troxell. Mrs. Anna B. Leach spoke concerning the week of talks given by Dr. Herbster, president of the United Church of Christ, on the theme "God's Mighty Acts," at Chataqua, N. Y., this summer which she attended. A piano solo, "Bless This House," was played by Carol Flinchbaugh; reading on Halloween was given by Mrs. Glenn Flinchbaugh; group hymn.

The serving of banquets was discussed during the business period in charge of Mrs. Edward B. Geiman, president. Mrs. Clement A. Sneeringer and Mrs. Lloyd E. Crouse were appointed to serve as a committee to investigate the matter of purchasing chairs for the church social room. Reports were given by Mrs. Crouse, secretary, and Mrs. Paul F. Crabbs, treasurer. The guest package, contributed by Mrs. Granville R. Jacoby, was received by Mrs. Sneeringer. Refreshments were served during the social hour by Mrs. Leach, Mrs. Stonesifer and Miss Troxell.

The Aid Society will meet again on Tuesday, November 13, at the church when the hostesses will be Mrs. Glenn S. Kaufman, Mrs. Horace C. Koonitz and Mrs. Lloyd E. Crouse.

CLASS MEETING HELD

Mrs. Dale W. Starry was hostess at the monthly meeting of the Ever Willing Class of St. John's Lutheran Church held at the church Tuesday evening. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Betty Wisotzky, followed with humorous readings by the members. Mrs. Starry, who visited the Mormon Center on a trip to the west coast last summer, played a record by the Mormon Choir. The class is selling holiday candy for the benefit of the treasury and orders should be given to the secretary, Mrs. Kathryn Morehead, no later than November 18. Reports were given by Mrs. Morehead and Mrs. Albert Starner. Games were enjoyed during the social hour and refreshments served by Mrs. Starry. Mrs. Starner was auctioneer for several gifts provided by the hostess. The next meeting of the class will be held Tuesday, November 13, at the church with Mrs. Anna

Injured Boxer In 20th Day Coma

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Alejandro Lavorante, the injured Argentine boxer, remained in a coma today for the 20th day.

Attendants at California Lutheran Hospital said that Lavorante's reactions continue to improve but that brain swelling near the sleep center still was keeping him unconscious.

The South American heavyweight has been hospitalized since he was knocked out Sept. 21 in a bout here with Johnny Riggin of San Francisco.

GHS In Crucial Game With Northern Friday; E. Pennsboro At Bigler, St. Francis At Delone

Key Blue Mountain League games at Gettysburg and Biglerville Friday evening highlight the weekend of scholastic football for Adams County fans.

The Gettysburg High Warriors meet Northern Joint on the local field while Biglerville is host to unbeaten East Pennsboro at Biglerville.

In another Friday night game Delone entertains St. Francis Prep of Spring Grove at McSherrystown.

Tonight the grid activity begins when Bermudian Springs' varsity travels to McSherrystown to meet the Delone junior varsity at 7:30.

Littletown will be in action Saturday afternoon when it clashes with Central at York in a Laurel Conference game.

NORTHERN AT GETTYSBURG

The toughest part of the season begins with Friday's game with Northern in the opinion of Coach Don Young and, with a good shot at the Blue Mountain title, the Warriors will go all out against the Polar Bears. It is a "must" game for the Warriors.

Gettysburg enters the game with an overall 3-2 record and 3-1 mark in league competition as compared to Northern's 3-2 season mark and 1-2 league effort.

Northern is tabbed by Young as an explosive team with plenty of scrap, a heavy line, particularly at the tackles, and a group of determined backs led by John Silco, 155; Fran Myers, 165, and Jim Myers, 160. Last year Coach John Eshright's outfit finished in a five-way tie for second place. Their current record shows victories over Bermudian Springs 29-0, Susquehanna 27-6 and Newport 38-14, while losses were suffered at the hands of Shippensburg 19-13 and East Pennsboro 27-14.

Until the past week, Coach Young and his staff had been concentrating on improving the defensive work of the Warriors but this week stepped up their program to get a better running attack underway.

There are no injuries on the squad and full manpower will be available to throw against the Dillsburg outfit.

EAST PENNSBORO AT BIGLERVILLE

"We can win if we play as we did against Juniata Joint last week," is the unusual optimistic observation of Coach Jack Emanuel, whose Biglerville Cannons take on the Blue Mountain's unbeaten leaders, East Pennsboro, Friday on Musselman Field at Biglerville. This is also a "must" affair for Biglerville to become contenders.

He tabs the Panthers as one of the toughest opponents the Cannons will face but believes his squad is capable of turning in an upset with an all-out performance. "The game should be decided on the line," Emanuel added, pointing out the fine consistent line play of East Pennsboro throughout the season.

After losing a nonleague game to Mechanicsburg 32-7, the Panthers topped Big Spring 26-0, Shippensburg 14-7 and Northern 27-14 for a winning streak of three straight. John Gross, East Pennsboro coach, has a veteran team which includes 15 lettermen and has lived up to its preseason rating as the league's top contender for honors.

Biglerville dropped its first two games to Big Spring and Camp Hill and then bounced back for victories over Boiling Springs and Juniata. The Cannons have apparently hit their stride and should give all future foes stiff arguments. Mike Thomas, end, who had been sidelined due to an injury, will see at least part time duty against the Panthers.

ST. FRANCIS AT DELONE

The three-game losing streak of the Delone Squires should come to an end Friday evening when St. Francis Prep of Spring Grove invades McSherrystown.

St. Francis won its opener from Shenandoah Catholic 33-20 and then dropped decisions to Mt. Carmel Catholic 24-7 and York Catholic 15-12. Top performers for the Hilltoppers are Mike Dane, who has tabbed six of his team's eight touchdowns, "Chuck" Gallagher, another back, and Don Frey, quarterback.

Coach Bucky Kempton has announced that only three seniors will be in the opening lineup for Delone, Pete Giraffa, tackle; Roger Sanders, quarterback, and "Chuck" Elder, halfback. Underclassmen will fill the other positions where seniors have failed to measure up to expectations.

BERMUDIAN AT DELONE JAYVEES

Coach Dean Becker of Bermudian Springs also plans use underclassmen as much as possible this evening at 7:30 when the Eagles oppose the Delone junior varsity at McSherrystown.

TOM TRESH IN HERO'S ROLE FOR YANKEES

Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP)—Tom Tresh always wanted to be a big league ball player like his dad, but not a catcher.

"Dad was afraid it would waste my speed," he said.

Young Tom—son of former Chicago White Sox catcher Mike Tresh—became the left fielder for the New York Yankees. But he only needed speed enough to jog around the bases Wednesday, after he blasted a three-run homer at Yankee Stadium that won the fifth game of the World Series against the San Francisco Giants.

TRYING FOR HIT

Tresh blasted Jack Sanford's second pitch into the right field seats in the eighth inning, with two men on and the score tied 2-2, to play the hero's role.

"I was choked up on the bat, just trying for a base hit, especially with him (Sanford) pitching," said Tresh. "But he threw me a fast ball right down the pipe. I was sure surprised to see it, because I hadn't seen anything like that off him in two games."

"When I saw where the ball was, I took a good cut. I thought it was gone all the way. It was the biggest hit of my life."

Tresh, 23, a rookie, won the Yankee shortstop job this spring and spent half the season there until the regular occupant, Tony Kubek, returned from military service. Then he was shifted to left.

He hit .226 during the season, with 20 home runs. He leads the Yankee hitters in the series, with 400.

Tom's father, mother and wife were in the stands when he pounced out his first World Series homer, and the elder Tresh was called to the clubhouse after the game.

"Where were you sitting?" he was asked. "I wasn't sitting. I was jumping up and down. This was a bigger thrill than anything I ever did," said Mike, now 49, who never played in a World Series during his 12-season career with the White Sox and Cleveland Indians.

GIANTS STILL CONFIDENT OF WINNING TITLE

By JACK STEVENSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Manager Alvin Dark and his scrappy San Francisco Giants were back in the old familiar position today with their backs to the wall.

"I still think we're going to win it in seven games," declared Dark as his club came home for the showdown with the New York Yankees who lead 3-2 in the World Series and need only one more victory to win it all.

Veteran southpaw Billy Pierce, who hurled Friday after today's open date, agreed. "We aren't in bad shape being in our home park. Things have turned out real well for me in Candlestick Park."

"TWO STRAIGHT" Billy won 12 games without a loss at home while pitching his first season for the Giants.

Big Don Larsen, a hero for the Yankees when he pitched his perfect World Series game in 1956 and now a reliever with the Giants, added:

"I think we can do it. We can beat these guys two straight."

The Giants have needed to rally or lose it all in key situations before during the 1962 campaign. They didn't catch the Los Angeles Dodgers until the final game of the season after trailing since July 9. Then they scored four runs in the ninth frame of the final playoff game to beat Los Angeles 4-3 for the pennant.

"WORST GAME"

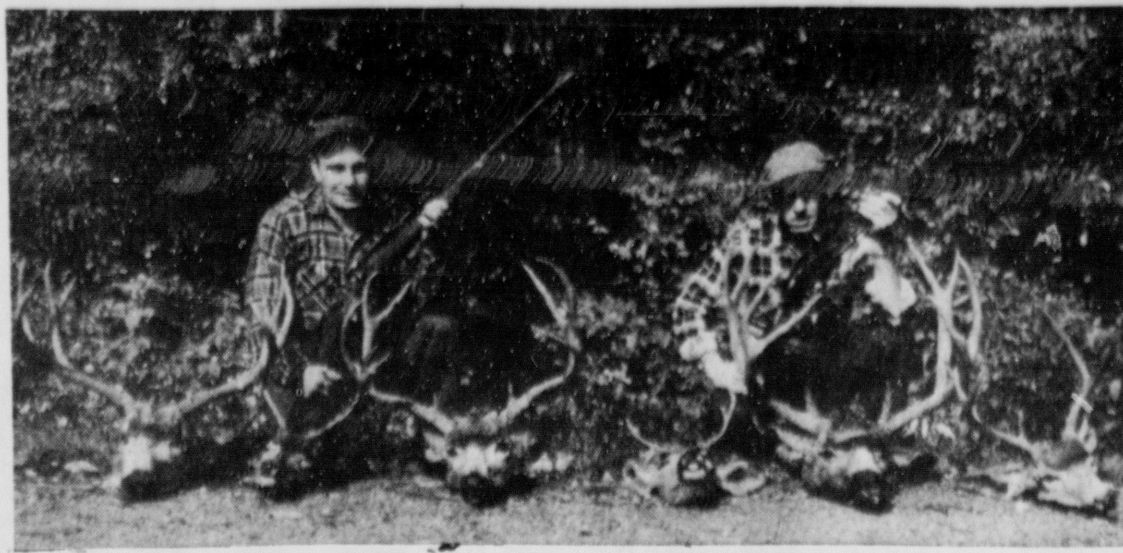

Dark wasn't pleased at all with his club's showing in losing the fifth game 5-3 in New York. Two errors in the first inning and the passed ball allowing the second Yankee run must have been in his thoughts but he cited no incidents while saying, "That's the worst game we've played in a long time."

Once again the big hitters were quiet with the bat and a little guy provided most of the San Francisco offense — this time shortstop Jose Pagan.

The 165-pound infielder from Puerto Rico scored two runs — one after hitting a single in the third inning and again with a homer in the fifth.

For the series, he has seven hits in 14 times at bat — an even .500 average.

Dark called a loosening up workout at Candlestick today but delayed naming a probable lineup until Yankee Manager Ralph Houk picks his starting pitcher. Houk has both left-hander Whitey Ford and right-hander Bill Stafford ready.

G-BURG TAKES FIRST SOCCER CONTEST 2-1

The Gettysburg College soccer team registered its first win of the season by squeezing past Lycoming 3-2 here Wednesday afternoon.

The Bullets, now 1-1 on the season, will take on Temple University here Saturday afternoon.

Unlike last week's setback at the hands of Lehigh, the Bullet Sophomores came through with flying colors to bolster the offensive attack and give Coach Lou Hammann the punch he has been seeking.

Lycoming got things started in the first period when Bob Barrett lined a shot to center forward Fred Feigley who turned rifled in a corner shot with 7:40 minutes gone by in the game. Three minutes later Gettysburg knotted the count when veteran Dick Taylor made good on a penalty kick.

At the 11:40 mark of the first quarter, Gettysburg when ahead on Sophomore center forward Bill Shinnerer's screaming line shot. Both teams battled on even terms in the second stanza and the score stood 2-1 in favor of Gettysburg at intermission.

Lycoming put the game back in a deadlock late in the third period when Mike Burr rammed through a shot from the right side assisted again by Barrett. It took Gettysburg just 40 seconds to score the eventual winning goal when Taylor, taking a high looping boot from Bill McEwan, fired the ball into the nets.

The Lineups:	Pos.	Gettysburg	Lycoming

Rattlers Are Top Grid Team

Florida A&M's speedy Rattlers took over the top spot among the nation's small colleges today in the second weekly Associated Press poll of sportscasters and broadcasters.

The Rattlers skipped from third place in last week's poll after their 52-6 victory Saturday night over Lincoln University, their second in as many starts.

Southern Mississippi, fourth a week ago, went to the No. 2 spot after rolling over Chattanooga 31-13. Third this week is Pittsburgh, Kan. No. 2 a week ago, but a 24-12 loser Saturday to Kirksville.

Fresno State, last week's leader, dropped to sixth after losing to Abilene Christian, 26-14.

The rest of the Top Ten includes Southeast Louisiana (fourth) Slippery Rock (fifth), Lamar Tech (seventh), Hillsdale (eighth), Texas Southern and Linfield (tied for ninth).

Bigler Jr. High Downs Bermudian

The Biglerville Junior High football team edged Bermudian Springs 7-6 Wednesday afternoon on the Cannons' field.

Bob Cline ran 20 yards to give Biglerville its touchdown in the first period and then added the extra point on an end sweep.

The Bermudian score came in the third period.

Biglerville, now 1-1, will play at Littleton next Wednesday at 3:45 o'clock.

The wild pitch by Jack Sanford and the passed ball by Tom Haller in the 5-3 Yankee victory over the Giants were the first such misplays by anyone in the series so far. No pitcher has yet to commit a balk.

The three Yankee victories all have been achieved with a National League umpire working behind the plate. Both of the Giants' triumphs came with an American League man calling balls and strikes.

$40,000 Tourney Opens On Coast

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—A field of top flight golf professionals, having given the tournament site an exhaustive survey in a pro-amateur round, fire away today in the first round of the $40,000 Bakersfield Open.

Slated to tee off in the initial threesome were nationally known Mike Souchak, Bob Goalby and George Bayer, with such other name pros as Gene Littler, Billy Casper Jr., Billy Maxwell, Ken Venturi and Don January set to follow.

Rex Baxter Jr. of Amarillo, Tex., former national collegiate champion, toured the Bakersfield course Wednesday with an individual 33-33-66 for the low score in the pro-amateur competition. Casper and Bayer had 67's.

DELONE FROSH LOSE 20-7 TO EDISON JR. HI

The Delone Catholic High Freshmen suffered their third loss in as many starts Wednesday afternoon when Edison Junior High of Harrisburg took a 20-7 decision at McSherrystown.

On the first play from scrimmage Edison scored when Arthur Ray shot through right tackle and scampered 62 yards for a score.

Edison required but four plays to move 50 yards for a second period score, Dennis Appleberry skirled left end from the 20 for the touchdown. Ray plunged for the point.

After a scoreless third period, both teams chalked up tallies in the last quarter. Ray took a pitchout from Steve Zeiders and swept right end from the 36. A plunge by Ray made it 20-0.

Delone finally cashed in late in the last period when it drove 65 yards, Dan Smith crashing over from the one. Ray Timmins ran for the extra point.

In the second period the Squires threatened by reaching the Edison 35 but on the next two plays were thrown for a total of 20 yards loss to erase the threat.

Next Wednesday Delone invades Harrisburg to meet Bishop McDermott at 3:30 p.m.

Patterson Wants Second Title Bout

BOSTON (AP)—Floyd Patterson's manager says the deposed heavyweight champion wants a rematch with Sonny Liston, who knocked him out last month and won his crown.

"There definitely will be a rematch," Cus D'Amato said Wednesday at a news conference. "It's in the original contract and Floyd will insist on a second fight."

D'Amato, deflating speculation that Patterson might not hold Liston to the rematch agreement, said Patterson feels the second fight "will be a very different one."

Liston knocked Patterson out in the first round of a scheduled 15-rounder in Chicago Sept. 25.

POWELL NOW FIXTURE FOR LIONS OF PSU

By DAVE LEHERR

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—They laughed when little Junior Powell wanted to play football for Penn State.

"He'll get killed playing in our league," head Coach Rip Engle joshed at the time.

Lion scout Sever Toretti agreed: "He's just too small."

But Powell's high school coach, Alex Ufema of Lewistown, finally persuaded them to give the 150-pounder a chance. Now they're glad they did.

Because Powell is a permanent fixture in Penn State's backfield this year and one of the big reasons why the mighty Nittany Lions are ranked third in the nation.

ENTHUSIASTIC TOO

He's still only 5-7 and weighs only 162, but what he lacks in size, he makes up in heart.

"He's a good player, but he's even more valuable for the enthusiasm he generates in the rest of the guys," said Engle.

Statistically, Powell leads Penn State in three departments — this year — scoring, pass catching and interceptions.

He's 12th in the country in pass catching, having snared 13 for 147 yards in State's first three games and he's often compared to the great Tommy McDonald of the Philadelphia Eagles in this field.

In scoring, he's got 20 points on the ledger—including three touchdowns and two extra points.

CANADA LEADS GOLF TOURNEY

By ALAN CLINE

KAWANA Japan (AP)—Canada shot into the lead in the third World Amateur Golf Team Championship today, overtaking a faltering United States squad with consistent near-par play on the dully cold and wet Fuji course.

Long-hitting Gary Cowan, the first player on the course for the second round of the 72-hole stroke play tournament, showed the way with a 71 on the rain-soaked par 70 course which measures 6,587 yards.

Two other Canadians, Bill Wakeham and Nick Weslock carded 73s to give Canada a 217-stroke team total for the day and a two-day score of 432. Only the lowest three scores for each team each day are counted in compiling the team figures. After the first round Wednesday it was 212 for the United States and 215 for Canada.

The Americans, who had led by three strokes after the first round, came apart in today's cold rain and wound up six strokes behind Canada at 438. Meanwhile Ronnie Shada, playing in the next-to-last threesome, shattered the Fuji course record with a round of 33-33-66 and boosted the combined Britain-Ireland team into contention.

New Zealand held onto third in the team standings with a two-day total of 442. Britain-Ireland followed with 444. Then came Formosa with 453, Australia 455, South Africa 456 and Japan 457.

Yankees Move Close To 20th World Championship In Last 40 Years On Win

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP)—It just had to happen. And now the Giants can try to bounce back once more.

San Francisco's own were one game from disaster today following Wednesday's 5-3 New York Yankee victory in New York that gave the American League champions a three-to-two edge in the World Series.

As the rivals prepare for the sixth game here Friday, the Yankees need only one more victory to record their 20th world championship in the last 40 years.

GIANTS NEED TWO

The Giants, of course, must win Friday's as well as the seventh game on Saturday to reign as champions. Since they were forced to come from behind all through the regular season, why should the script be scrapped in the World Series?

They didn't catch the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League race until the final day of the season after trailing since July 9. Then they had to overcome a 4-2 deficit with four runs in the ninth inning to win the final playoff game for the pennant.

The Giants' task is much more difficult now despite the fact the balance of the series will be played in their home park. They must beat southpaw Whitey Ford and right-hander Bill Stafford, although not necessarily in that order. Each owns a victory without having tasted defeat in the series.

PIERCE WILL GO

Manager Alvin Dark of the Giants named lefty Billy Pierce, his sixth game pitcher, immediately after Wednesday's Yankee victory, which was triggered by Tom Tresh's three-run homer in the eighth inning. The blow by the rookie outfielder, off right-hander Jack Sanford, snapped a 2-2 tie and gave Ralph Terry his first World Series triumph after four defeats, one in the current series.

Dark, however, delayed naming the rest of the lineup until he learned the identity of the Yankee starting pitcher. New York manager Ralph Houk said his pitcher would be either Ford or Stafford, but declined to name him until after the workout this afternoon.

"I still think we'll win it," said Dark, despite odds making the Yanks 3½-1 favorites. "I've said all along the series will go seven games and we'll win it. I feel we can beat them two straight."

Houk did not gloating. He is fully aware that this has been a terrific struggle so far, with very little to choose between the two teams. Going into the seventh inning, neither team has had more than a one-run lead in any of the five games.

NO YANKS GLOATING

The Yankees have collected 38 hits to 37 for the Giants. Tresh's homer Wednesday was only the second for the Yankees. The Giants have hit five off Yankee pitching. Only in the first game has either team hit in double figures.

TWO "BLEEDERS"

Two of the Yankees' hits Wednesday were "bleeders." One was a Texas League double by Tresh that shortstop Jose Pagan dropped after a long run. The other was a topped single by Richardson half way to the mound. The first two Yankee runs crossed the plate on a wild pitch and a passed ball. Pagan scored the first two Giant runs. He singled and scored on Chuck Hiller's double in the third and homered in the fifth.

Sanford retired the first batter in the eighth but never got another batter. After fanning Terry for his 10th strikeout, he yielded singles to Tony Kubek and Richardson. Then came Tresh's homer and Sanford was finished.

CONGRESS IS STRUGGLING TOWARD CLOSE

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders struggled to bring the 87th Congress to a close today but conceded that Friday night was a more likely target for adjournment.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Democratic leader, said he had not entirely abandoned hope for closing shop tonight but that the hope was a dim one.

House leaders confidently predicted final adjournment late Friday.

PROGRESS SLOW

Little progress was made on Wednesday in disposing of the few key bills remaining and no action was scheduled for most of them today.

But nearly every important measure left was in a position to be moved quickly to the White House if only a few bitter disputes could be settled.

Numerous behind-the-scenes conferences were called Wednesday, with White House prodding clearly in evidence, and the leaders said substantial progress was made on their thorniest problems.

ORDERS FROM JFK

One source, who asked not to be identified, said President Kennedy told Democratic leaders in no uncertain terms at a White House conference earlier in the week that he wants Congress out of Washington.

Kennedy was reported to have remarked acerbically that while he was out campaigning for more Democrats in Congress, the Democrats there weren't helping matters by squabbling and giving the impression they couldn't even adjourn.

Kennedy himself removed one big stumbling block by his last-minute signature on the pension bill for the self-employed.

TUG OF WAR

This meant that Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., chief Senate sponsor of the measure, would remove his objection which has helped block consideration of a final supplemental money bill.

He cast his objection to delay adjournment and keep Congress in town in case Kennedy vetoed the pension measure.

However, Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., did not withdraw his objection.

He is leading the Senate in another round of tug-of-war with the House over prestige. This round involves a $5 billion agriculture appropriations bill.

NOTE ON BERLIN

He has been insisting on funds for construction of a number of new agriculture research facilities which the House opposes.

The Senate voted Wednesday to put Congress on record backing any action, including the use of military force, needed to uphold Western rights in Berlin. Passage of the Berlin resolution was by voice vote. The House had approved the resolution earlier.

Both branches sent to Kennedy on Wednesday a $2,025,895,700 appropriations measure to run the State, Justice and Commerce Departments.

This left four money bills to be acted on, including the supplemental and the farm measure.

JFK PROCLAMATION

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has proclaimed Sept. 17, 1962, through July 4, 1963, for observance of the 175th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution.

He said Wednesday this period should be dedicated to "a renewal of national awareness of the priceless heritage which the Constitution represents."

Candidates State Views On School Reorganization Act

HARRISBURG (AP)—The two major candidates for governor have agreed in principle to mandatory school district reorganization. But they stand far apart on implementation of the 1961 reorganization law.

Democrat Richardson Dilworth declared flatly Wednesday he is for the consolidation law as written, adding firmly:

"I will not monkey with it and if anyone tries to monkey with it, I will veto such effort."

WOULD AMEND

Republican William W. Scrant, sharing the same platform before a group of educators, proposed amendments to the law that would postpone its final effective date from 1965 to 1966 and reduce emphasis on population factors.

The two candidates spoke approximately 20 minutes each. Scrant going first on the flip of a coin, with a half-hour of question time allotted to members of the Governor's Bipartisan Committee of 100 for Better Education.

However, the committeemen asked only three questions of each candidate, then let the remaining time lapse.

WOULD BOOST SALARIES

The appearance spotlighted many areas of agreement between the candidates on other areas of education in Pennsylvania.

Both proposed increases in teachers' salaries (the minimum now is $3,600 a year) and state aid to public schools, selection of a superintendent of public instruction by a special panel instead of by the governor, creation of a system of community colleges, establishment of a scholarship program and extension of Civil Service to the Department of Public Instruction.

The candidates split sharply on the type of a policy-making body in education.

AGREE AND DISAGREE

Scrant proposed separate councils of education for institutions of higher and lower learning. The two units would form a single "state board of education."

Dilworth proposed instead that the present council be expanded and reorganized to include separate subcommittees for higher and lower education.

Both candidates agreed that teacher tenure, debt assumption, school transportation aid, supplemental subsidies, makeup of school boards are problems in connection with school reorganization that need to be accommodated by the 1963 legislature.

These proposed changes already are in the works; the state has been working out legislation to handle them. But the changes would be made in existing school laws, as Dilworth suggests, not the reorganization act itself.

School Children's Fares Will Jump

HARRISBURG (AP)—Special fares for school children riding buses of the Auch Inter-Borough Transit Co. of Conshohocken will be raised from 10 to 12 cents next Monday.

Other fares charged by the company remain unchanged in a new rate schedule approved Wednesday by the Public Utility Commission.

The increase boosts school fares from five tickets for 50 cents to 10 tickets for $1.20.

The bus line estimates the two-cent increase will produce a net revenue increase of $700 a year to help offset wage increases.

NEW PORTER HONOR

BOSTON (AP)—Katherine Anne Porter, author of the best-selling novel "Ship of Fools," has been awarded the Emerson-Thoreau Medal of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences for distinguished literary achievement.

IKE ASKS CURB ON SPENDING SPREE BY U.S.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says he currently is campaigning for Republican candidates because he feels that decisions on grave national problems "should be made by the people themselves."

"I'm on the hustings to tell people, 'Take back your faith in yourselves; don't let any one man make your decisions.' We can make certain that state and national governments represent us and not a little clique of professors from a certain college," he said.

Eisenhower spoke to a police-estimated 5,000 massed in the open air of a downtown bank plaza Wednesday during an hour's stop while enroute to Washington from a Western campaign swing.

"SPENDING SPREE"

Among other things, he called for a halt to what he termed the spending spree in Washington and an "unconscionable grab for power."

The former chief executive said Washington bureaucrats were seeking to centralize power there and that President Kennedy was trying to get a lot of it into his own hands.

Eisenhower praised Gov. Elmer L. Andersen and also urged the return to Congress of Reps. Walter Judd and Clark MacGregor, as well as the election of all other Minnesota Republican congressional candidates.

His visit came just four days after President Kennedy had made a pitch for Democratic candidates in Minnesota last week-end. Kennedy talked to an estimated 20,000 at a Democratic beach feed.

After establishing a world speed record of 47.6 miles an hour at the first International Air Meet at Rheims, France, in August 1909, Glenn H. Curtiss made the statement that with improvements on the motor he felt he could safely predict that he "aeroplane would some day make 100 miles per hour."

REP. GRANAHAN GETS OVATION

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was Rep. Kathryn E. Granahan's swan song but before she could finish she was interrupted by a deluge of praise from the House floor.

Shortly after the Senate confirmed the Philadelphia's nomination as treasurer of the United States Wednesday, she attempted to say goodbye, expressing pleasure in having served in the House since 1956.

Mrs. Granahan, a Democrat, said she was "deeply grateful to the Democratic leadership in Philadelphia" and to Rep. William J. Green Jr., Philadelphia Democratic chairman, whose redistricting plan abolished her West Philadelphia district.

Then Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma, the Democratic floor leader, interrupted to say that no one in the House was "more respected, more loved and more admired" than Mrs. Granahan.

City Of Pontiffs Small In Size, Rich In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Vatican Council which opened today covers an area of only 108.7 acres — smaller than many American farms. But in terms of art and history, it is one of the richest pieces of real estate in the world.

Vatican City, site of the Second

The independent temporal power exercised by Pope John XXIII is symbolic of the spiritual authority which he has over Catholics throughout the world. For many centuries, this temporal power was more extensive than now. As late as the 19th Century, the pope ruled thousands of square miles across the middle of Italy and a population of more than three million.

CHANGE IN 1929

Limits of the modern Vatican were established June 7, 1929, with the ratification of the Lateran Agreement which settled a 60-year controversy between Italy and the Vatican.

The city state is dominated by St. Peter's Basilica, where deliberations of the Second Vatican Council are being conducted. Other features are the Vatican Palace, which contains Pope John's apartment, museums, art galleries, gardens libraries, a radio station, post office, bank, astronomical observatory, offices, living quarters and service facilities.

Normal Vatican population is approximately 1,000, mainly priests and religious. The legal system is based on canon law in cases where this code does not apply, the laws of the City of Rome are used.

SOVEREIGN POWER

As a full-fledged state, Vatican City enjoys all the rights and privileges of a sovereign power. It maintains diplomatic relations with other nations and the citizens of Vatican City — but they alone — owe allegiance to the pope as a temporal ruler.

Thick walls surround Vatican City except at the entrance to St. Peter's Square.

A visitor could walk the length of the tiny sovereignty in about eight minutes but he could not view all its treasures of art and learning if he took a lifetime. The Vatican Library contains 770,000 printed books and 70,000 manuscripts. Some of the greatest names in the art of Western civilization — Michelangelo, Raphael, Bernini, Titian, Leonardo da Vinci — are represented in its architecture decorations and art galleries.

Bob Jones played in his first National Amateur golf championship at 14 and lost in the third round, but later won the title five times.

KENNEDY OFF ON CAMPAIGN TRAIL AGAIN

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, betraying obvious symptoms of campaign fever, sets out today on his second grueling weekend of stumping for Democrats.

With exuberance running through his entourage, Kennedy starts with a quiet afternoon and night schedule in New York, then moves into action Friday in Newark, N.J., and Manhattan before flying to Pittsburgh.

After spreading his word for Democratic congressional and state candidates in Western Pennsylvania, Kennedy hits Indianapolis, Louisville and Buffalo, N.Y., in a battle plan that gets him back to Washington headquarters late Sunday.

HUGE, SPIRITED CROWD

Kennedy listed no public appearances until Friday, when he participates in Columbus Day celebrations at Newark and New York. The White House said he had some appointments today.

The President and his campaign companions already were cheered by a noisy, massive reception in Baltimore Wednesday night. Kennedy flew in by helicopter to add steam to a Democratic rally and was greeted with enthusiasm and numbers rivaling the best demonstrations of 1960, when he was campaigning for himself instead of others.

The route of his three-mile ride from the park where his helicopter landed to Baltimore's 5th Regiment Armory, scene of the rally, lay in middle- and low-income areas of Democratic strength. The turnout, nonetheless, was huge and spirited by any measure.

SAME MESSAGE

The crowds were friendly except for one group outside the armory bearing such placards as "Invade Cuba, not Mississippi."

Kennedy's message to the Armory crowd was the same he has attempted to put across in one stop after another this fall.

It will be "vitality important" in the next two years, Kennedy said, to fill Congress with those "who believe in moving this country ahead." U.S. strength around the world, he said, requires strength at home.

So, he exhorted, vote Democratic.

SHAKESPEARE GRAVE WON'T BE DISTURBED

NEW YORK (AP)—Both the vicar of the church in which William Shakespeare is buried and the bishop of the diocese have turned down a request to open the Bard's grave, an American member of the Shakespeare Action Committee said Wednesday.

Calvin Hoffman, author, lecturer and Shakespearean scholar, of Westwood Village, Calif., said, "Our next step will be to appeal to the archbishops of York and Canterbury."

"We even will appeal to Queen Elizabeth herself, if necessary, as head of the Church of England."

SEEK MANUSCRIPTS

The committee, formed a month ago in London, wants to examine the contents of the grave in the interest of literary research. It hopes to find manuscripts of the poet's works or contemporary historical evidence which would settle a long dispute over actual authorship of the plays attributed to Shakespeare.

The Rev. Thomas Bland, vicar of Holy Trinity church in Stratford-on-Avon, and the bishop of Coventry have "summarily refused permission" for the grave to be opened, Hoffman said in an interview.

If appeals to higher church authority result in permission, it then will be necessary to obtain similar authorization from the British government.

Special Session Of Pa. Court Oct. 19

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pennsylvania Supreme Court will meet in a special session Oct. 19 in Philadelphia.

Chief Justice John C. Bell, announcing the session Wednesday at the end of a regular session lasting almost three weeks in Pittsburgh, gave no reason for the special session. But the court is expected to discuss and possibly decide on the legality of a grand jury investigation into alleged corruption in Philadelphia city government. The investigation has been ruled illegal by Philadelphia County Common Pleas Court.

Justice Bell indicated to newsmen that the Supreme Court's decision would affect grand jury probes in general.

The court's last regular day was spent hearing oral arguments in the case, Justice Bell indicated that the case has raised many technical points which must be thoroughly researched.

Two Harrisburg Men Sentenced

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—James K. Lane, 32, and Robert Booker, 44, both of Harrisburg, Pa., were sentenced to two years in prison for their parts in an incident in which a state trooper was shot Aug. 20.

Judge D. K. McLaughlin imposed sentence on their conviction of attempted larceny, and being rogues and vagabonds. Concurrent one-year sentences were imposed on charges of property destruction.

Laurence Johns, 27, Pittsburgh, shot himself fatally in the same case, as police closed in on him near Hancock, Md.

State Trooper Robert Kirby said he caught the three trying to break open an outdoor pay telephone. He said he arrested Lane and Booker, but Johns shot him in the hip and shoulder, and fled.

CIGARETTES BLAMED FOR LUNG CANCER

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A British doctor has backed the contention of a Pittsburgh carpenter that cigarettes caused the lung cancer for which he is now suing a major cigarette manufacturer.

Dr. Charles M. Fletcher, secretary of the Cigarette and Air Pollution Committee of the Royal College of Physicians, testified Wednesday in the suit brought by Otto Pritchard, 64, against the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

"At my request," Pritchard's attorney asked, "did you read a copy of the testimony of Pritchard about his smoking habits?"

"Yes, I did," Dr. Fletcher answered.

BLAMES SMOKING

"Based on the information so acquired and on your experience," the questioning continued, "tell us what in your opinion caused Pritchard's cancer of the lung?"

"I would attribute it to his cigarette smoking," the doctor said.

Attorneys for Liggett & Myers did not cross-examine Dr. Fletcher.

Pritchard had testified last week that he started smoking when he was 14, in 1912. He began smoking Chesterfield cigarettes—made by Liggett & Myers—regularly in the mid-20's, he said, and continued until cancer forced the removal of his right lung in 1953.

The three "Big M's" of the clubs haven't been faring too well at the plate. Willie Mays of the Giants and Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris of Yanks all failed to hit in the fifth game. Mays was 0-for-4 while Mantle and Maris were 0-for-3. Mays' series average is .233, Mantle's .111 and Maris' .188.

New York Is Pressured To Change Law Permitting 18-Year-Old Youths To Drink

EDITOR'S NOTE—Sale of liquor to 18-year-olds, permitted by New York State, has aroused neighboring states who are pressuring New York to change its law. Here is a report on the problem.

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The six-year-old sedan hurtled down a rain-swept road in early-morning darkness, swerved suddenly out of control, whipped from one side of the road to another and slammed into a tree.

Six young men lay dead in the wreckage. A seventh died within hours. There were no survivors.

Two of the victims were 18 years old. Three were 19 and two were 20.

The Vermont state police report said: "A strong odor of intoxicants was detected on all but one of the victims. Investigation disclosed these young men had traveled to New York State and were in a hotel and restaurant previous to returning to Vermont."

PRESSURE ON N. Y.

That accident is one of the more dramatic reasons why New York is being pressed by neighboring states to change its liquor laws which now permit sale of liquor to 18-year-olds. They want New York to raise the minimum to 21.

A legislative committee has been studying the issue and will make recommendations by Dec. 15.

All indications now are that New York State will retain its 18-year minimum.

Those advocating a 21-year-level offer two main arguments.

Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey appeared at a public hearing in Albany with a statement representative of the views of officials of states bordering on New York.

LURED TO DRINK

"For as long as that (18-year) law remains young people will be lured to this state from other states for the purpose of drinking, legalized drinking and will later suffer death, needless death," Hughes said.

The Rev. Dan M. Potter, executive director of the Protestant Council of the City of New York, presented a view shared by the state's Protestant organizations, and by such groups as the New York State Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations.

"Because the drinking teen-ager becomes involved in various crimes from joyriding to disturbing the peace, to wanton destruction of property, to experimental sexual behavior, to gang wars and other malicious acts . . . anyone who really has the interest of our teen-agers at heart and is seriously concerned about the moral and ethical standards of our society is compelled, in our opinion, to favor the 21-year level," Potter said.

"HOME PROBLEM"

While there is extensive support from organizations within New York State for a 21-year level, there is a large body of individual thought that the age at which a youth begins to drink is essentially a home problem, an Associated Press survey showed.

Doris Grumbach, who combines the roles of college professor, author and mother of four daughters, said she considered home training a more important factor than the law in preventing abuse of drinking. Without such training she said, drinking becomes "a trick to play on parents."

The argument turns on the question of whether an 18-year, 21-year or any age minimum specified by law is an actual factor in controlling youthful drinking or whether the abuse of liquor by youths must be prevented on a more personal basis.

Teamster Locals Backing Dilworth

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Eight Pittsburgh area locals of the Teamsters Union have given their support to Democratic gubernatorial candidate Richardson Dilworth.

The endorsements came Wednesday, just two weeks after the Teamsters Joint Council No. 40 had endorsed Dilworth's Republican opponent, William W. Scranton.

Thomas L. Fagan, president of Local 249, explained that the eight locals had been excused from voting in the Joint Council endorsements and were not included in the Council's action.

GREENVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A veterinarian says the birth of 24 pigs five days apart to a purebred Landrace sow was "unheard of previously."

Dr. Harold Nichols said the pigs were born to a sow owned by Blaine Dick of nearby Hadley R. 2, Oct. 1 and Oct. 6.

Dr. Nichols said the largest litter known before was 18. He said he knew of no previous case of double litters.

CANTERBURY ARCHBISHOP VISITS U.S.A.

By DENNIS NEED

LONDON (AP)—The man with the massive head and wisps of white hair flaring around his ears sipped his pint of cider and swapped tales with regulars at the bar of the country pub.

Few in the Devon Inn recognized the huge, broad-shouldered fellow at the bar as the Most Rev. Michael Ramsey, 100th archbishop of Canterbury and spiritual leader of 42 million Anglicans throughout the world.

Dr. Ramsey, who spends summer vacations in Devon, mixes as easily with farm and factory workers as he does with theological students and other princes of the church.

TO VISIT STATES

Social ease is one of many qualities that the archbishop carries with him to the United States on an extended visit starting Friday with stops in New York, Trenton, N.J.; Chicago; Los Angeles; San Francisco; Alexandria, Va.; Columbia, S.C. and Washington.

With his walking stick and rough tweeds, Dr. Ramsey could be taken for a country squire; in the splendor of cope and mitre he is the image of a proud prelate from a medieval stained glass window.

In British ceremonial he takes precedence over the prime minister.

LEADING THEOLOGIAN

Arthur Michael Ramsey, 57, is as impressive mentally as he is physically. He ranks among the church's leading theologians and is the author of several books distinguished for profound learning and clarity of expression.

The archbishop tells his clergy-men not to court popularity or "by sophisticated attempts" to be contemporary at all costs.

Despite his benign expression, the archbishop offers no popular comforts. Faith is hard, he says. Religion is not a cult of happiness. Some questions have no answers.

"We must put aside the 'keeping up with the Joneses' attitude to life," he says. "There must be an interest in God and in serving our fellows."

SON OF LECTURER

The son of a university lecturer, the young Ramsey was educated at Repton, a famous British school. His principal was Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, Dr. Ramsey's predecessor as archbishop of Canterbury.

Last year, on Dr. Fisher's retirement, Dr. Ramsey was appointed archbishop of Canterbury and primate of all England. He saw three major tasks before him.

The first was Christian unity. The second was to secure for the Church of England the liberty to revise its forms of public worship, which at present entails approval by Parliament. The third was "to bring God home to the people."

ENTHUSIASTIC TRAVELER

Unity is uppermost in Dr. Ramsey's mind. He has traveled thousands of miles to many parts of the world to further it. He has been to the Soviet Union twice.

Of the Roman Catholic ecumenical council opening today at the Vatican, Dr. Ramsey declared:

"It is not thought possible the council will alter the faith of the Roman Catholic Church or its fundamental claim to be itself alone the Catholic Church of Christ on earth. Nor is there likely to be any alteration in our belief as Anglicans that this claim of Rome is unacceptable."

Nevertheless, Dr. Ramsey added, "a new kind of charity has been blowing amongst Roman Catholics and Anglicans and in every part of Christendom."

Your small fry and your teenagers will enjoy an ice cream soda made with fresh fruit for dessert. If you are using fresh peaches for the fruit, peel and slice them. Reserve some of the slices to add last, but use the rest of them crushed and sweetened.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—No business office today is complete without its unofficial morale boosters.

Most large firms have a personnel department which officially tries to pep up the group loyalty of employees with such fringe benefits as free turkey raffles, bowling leagues and annual picnics and dances.

The attitude of the average hired hand toward these organized corporate goodwill gestures ranges from one of darkest suspicion to one of ready opportunism.

The philosophy of the opportunist may be expressed thusly: "If the company is giving it away for nothing I'll take it—even if it's only a framed photograph of the board chairman. After all, I can throw his picture away, and still keep the frame."

PAID CHEER LEADERS

But in addition to its paid cheerleaders, every office also has its quota of self-appointed joy spreaders. They take upon themselves the task of convincing the rest of the herd that life can still be wondrous—even if a fellow does have to work every day for a living.

Perhaps the following characters of this ilk are familiar in your own office:

"Nostalgic Ned"—He tries to make everyone feel grateful by telling how much worse things used to be in the old days.

"Why," he wheezes, "you would not believe it. I can remember when we stood up and saluted when the boss entered, they gave us only a quarter hour for lunch, and they docked part of your pay if you made more than two trips a day to the men's room."

"A GRAND JOB"

"Flannelmouth Fred"—He spends most of his time going around indiscriminately patting all the other employees on the back and saying, "You're doing a grand job."

Secretly, he hopes this will bring him to the eye of management as a man with executive talent. But the rest of the hired hands are sour on Fred. They know that after they finish doing their work, he'll ask them to help him do his.

"Rainbow-top Rosalee"—The executive secretary, a glamor gal with a middle-aged spread, fondly believes she gives every man in the place a thrill by tinting her hair a different exciting color every month.

"OFF HER ROCKER"

She would be distressed to know that half the men merely think she is off her rocker, and the other half think her wig has faded.

"Bankrupt Ben"—This guy is a reverse philanthropist. "Lend me $50," he wheedles. If you do, he feels that he has benefited you by giving you a fresh interest in living and a new hope—the wild hope that somehow, some day, he may pay you back.

"Woeful Wilbert"—"Gee, I wish I was on top of my job the way you are," he sighs enviously to each and all. Wilbert, who was born with 12 thumbs, is always in trouble. But he makes all the other employees—who were born with only 11 thumbs—feel like unrecognized geniuses.

"GREAT HIMSELF"

"The Great Himself"—The boss

ATLANTA BOY HAS KENNEDY ASPIRATIONS

ATLANTA (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Merrell didn't raise their son to be President of the United States — not intentionally they didn't, anyway.

The first they know of his ambitions was last fall when several politically significant events occurred in the privacy of their home.

Young Mike's room, for example, began to bear an uncanny resemblance to President Kennedy's campaign headquarters. Photographs, clippings, books flourished all over the place.

Soon it became obvious that

Along about this time of year he posts a notice on the bulletin board saying:

"If business keeps up like this, we probably won't lay off half the staff at Christmas—we'll lay two-thirds."

What would office life be like without these choristers of sweetness and light, who in their various ways do so much to reconcile us to the wear and tear of the long rut and the daily routine?

Mike was talking like Kennedy; using the same intonations and emphasis; pausing for his messages to sink in.

Later — this spring, in fact, Mike began LOOKING like Kennedy. As things stand now, he's an absolute ringer.

Fortunately, his parents are Democrats.

4-H CLUB

Said his mother: "Mike really began to come out in the 4-H Club."

Mike asked for the floor. He got it.

"It all began MUCH earlier," Mike amended thoughtfully. "I became interested in the President when he was campaigning for president. He was good on the radio. I would have voted for him if I'd been old enough. I am 12."

WATCHES CONFERENCE

"Since then I have watched his press conference every week on TV."

"My voice sounds something like his. Or his voice sounds something like mine. I began to study him."

"Instinctively, I'd point to a person for an answer, as he does. He looks down. Then, just as he looks up, he points. Sometimes he sort of pulls his jacket together where the lapels meet."

SPEECH HABITS

"He pronounces his Rs. I've been trying to even in conversation. I'm trying to get rid of my Southern accent and I've made progress — in school, they say I talk just like him."

Mike really began to look like Kennedy when he despaired of keeping his hair slicked back with water. He let it flop. The facial resemblance now is striking.

He dresses like Kennedy in a dark, two-button suit. He wears his ring on the same finger.

GRADES IMPROVE

In the past year his school average has shot up from C to B; he's taking no chances on the future.

Health

One-third of accidental deaths are involved with alcohol. What influence do other drugs have on a person who drives? Drugs such as pain relievers, pills for pep, and sedatives potentially have side effects that vary in different people. Possibly leading to accident. A driver should be concerned about the drug he swallows, as well as what he's drinking.

No one should ever get tetanus. Otherwise known as lockjaw. It kills half the people who contract the disease. Tetanus bacilli from the soil thrive in cuts and abrasions. And develop into tetanus. Poisoning the nervous system. Tetanus toxoid immunization. Routine in the armed forces. Is protection against tetanus. Everyone should be immunized.

County Woman Recalls Old Ghost Story; Called "True"

After Mrs. C. F. Brinkerhoff, York Springs, read a recent ghost story in The Gettysburg Times, it brought to mind that she knew where the certain "ghost house" was located along the Lincoln Highway. This prompted her to write her own "ghost" story as follows:

"We moved on a farm along the Hunterstown road a quarter mile east of Fairview School in 1896, and we lived there until 1901. I was 10½ years old then. The large brick house was built in the shape of a T and it had eleven rooms.

"The story goes that in 1863 when the war was going on there was a battle just close to the house and there was an old lady ill in bed in the back room or parlor. She said the soldiers should not get her money so it was buried under a small fireplace in that room.

"After she died things were reported heard and seen and it all started from that fireplace. We children dug up the fireplace as much as we could without scaring it, but we found nothing. But if you sat there in that room in the fall or spring of the year you could see a large fireball come out of the fireplace, roll across the room, out the unopened door and up the wide staircase into the first room to the right and there it went through the door without opening it.

"On the second floor there was a big shaggy black dog, like a collie dog. It would come out from under the beds or make like it was lapping something. You could see it plain but if you said 'dog' that was the end of it.

"The landlord's brother came and lived there in the first room. Often he would ask the family if there was anyone in his room, that he heard things. He put a double lock on but 'they' came anyway. The fireball always sounded like an old person with a cane and the stairs creaked. Not any of our family were afraid. We went upstairs any time in the dark for there was no electric light.

"This is a true story and I thought people might like to hear about it."

THOMAS E. PIPER
Area Marketing Agent

Colorful October brings a panorama of beauty to the Pennsylvania countryside and a variety of colorful fruits and vegetables to local produce markets, observes Tom Piper, Penn State extension marketing agent. Many commodities will receive promotional emphasis during October and foodshoppers taking advantage of special sales will realize considerable savings.

"Apple Week" will be observed nationally from October 11 through October 20. The apple harvest is now at a peak and many stores will have special displays during this observance. Prices are at the season's low point now as no storage charges are involved. In this area, Adams County growers plan a special "Harvest Holiday" program for this weekend, inviting the public to visit their orchards and roadside markets.

Other fruits in plentiful supply include cranberries, Bartlett pears, and grapes. Florida grapefruit shipments have been running heavy the past week and supplies are approaching peak volume. New crop oranges are starting to market but first-of-season prices will be high.

EGG PRICES LOWER

Shipments of California tomatoes and peppers are replacing waning supplies of homegrown. There is a slight increase in volume of Texas vegetables, and Florida has begun light harvesting of sweet corn, snap beans, eggplant, radishes and squash. Potatoes, celery, cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, sweet potatoes, lettuce and Brussels sprouts are best buys in fresh vegetables. Supplies of pumpkins, Indian corn, sweet cider and decorative gourds are ample.

Poultrymen change October to Eggtober in promotional programs for eggs. Egg prices edge downward during this month when new layers come into production. Medium and small eggs offer consumers more for their money at the present time. Storage stocks of cheese are high and this popular item is now featured at the dairy case.

Supplies are in near balance with demand at meat counters this week. For this reason, retailers are expected to select from a variety of items for feature purposes. Some stores will feature beef steaks or roasts, others pork roasts, chops and ham and still others turkey and chicken. Better check the ads in your local newspaper before shopping for meat this weekend.

PAJAMA TOPS AT ALLENBERRY

"Pajama Tops," based on the French farce, Mousmou, is playing at Allenberry for two weeks. The setting is in Deauville, France, and the play deals with the trials and tribulations of a debonaire Frenchman whose little indiscretions backfire on him when his loving wife unwittingly invites his paramour to be a house guest for the weekend.

The cast does well but this is sophisticated entertainment and not a play to which one would take the family.

Arthur Gorton plays the role of Georges Chauvinet, the husband, and handles his French accent very well. His wife is played by Patricia O'Connell who has appeared with some of the great names in the entertainment world, has been in several television series, and has played in such movies as "North by Northwest," "Butterfield 8" and "Back Street." Yolanda Bartoli playing Babette Latouche was her usual bright, noisy, self with very attractive costumes. Playing opposite her is George Darveries as Leonard Jolijoli. Pretty, little Jane Farnol takes privileges as the French maid, Claudine, in an abbreviated uniform. William McKereghan plays Jacques, a self-admitted "bum." Richard Marr plays Inspector Legrand and has no trouble proving that he wishes he were 20 years younger.

The scenery is bright, the action is fast and, for those who like this type of drama, the entertainment is hilarious.

W. GALLAGHER IS APPOINTED AP MANAGER

NEW YORK (AP)—Wes Gallagher, assistant general manager of The Associated Press since 1953, Wednesday was named general manager by the Board of Directors.

He succeeds Frank J. Starzel, whose retirement, effective at the end of this week, was announced Tuesday night.

Gallagher, 51, has been with the AP for 25 years, starting in Buffalo. He was a war correspondent during World War II and was chief of bureau for Germany from 1945 to 1951, when he was recalled to New York as a general executive in charge of personnel.

In 1953, as assistant general manager, he also took over direction of AP Newsfeatures.

HELD POST 14 YEARS

Starzel had been chief executive officer of the world-wide news service for 14 years.

The AP's board of directors, holding its regular fall meeting here, announced that it "reluctantly accepts (his) own carefully considered decision."

Starzel, 58, joined The AP in 1929. He plans to retire to his farm near South Londonderry, Vt.

His announcement followed by two weeks that of Executive Editor Alan J. Gould, after 21 years in the AP's top news post. Gould, who joined the AP in 1922, will retire next Feb. 1 at 65.

PLANNED 3 YEARS

Starzel reminded the board at its meeting Tuesday that his decision was "based on reasons of which the president of The Associated Press was informed three years ago, to be effective upon the completion of several major projects then being undertaken."

"With the contemplated developments nearing completion," he continued, "I am convinced this is the appropriate time for a successor to carry forward."

"It is in the organization's best interests that it have the benefit of younger direction with a new approach and philosophy now, well in advance of my mandatory retirement date in 1969."

TO BE CONSULTANT

He will remain as a consultant to The AP. He said he plans to undertake no other employment.

Benjamin M. McKelway, editor of the Washington Star and president of The AP, said in a statement that the board "takes this opportunity to express for itself and for the membership of The Associated Press our recognition

ROY RODGERS IS BACK IN SHAPE AFTER ANGINA

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP)—How to live with a heart condition is demonstrated by Roy Rogers, now doing his first steady work in four years.

A man-sized job it is, starting with wife Dale Evans in a weekly variety hour on ABC-TV Saturday nights. It marks for him the completion of the long road back to a full life after a long period of—for him—relative inactivity.

Roy's life had always been busy. As radio singer, then star of Western movies, rodeos and television series, he was one of Hollywood's biggest money-makers. He also supervised business enterprises and found time for a vigorous outdoor life.

SUFFERS ANGINA

"Then one day about four years ago I was hunting deer in Colorado, about 9,000 feet up," he related. "I had just shot a deer down in a canyon, and I called to the Colorado fellows to bring one of those bicycle affairs to carry it with."

"They came down and loaded it and started up the slope like they were walking on level ground. I followed after them and I started to get pains in my arms. I thought it was the altitude, but the pains continued when I got back home."

Roy consulted a doctor and learned he had an angina, a contraction of the main artery of the heart. Roy explained that he had three big rodeo dates in Canada and six state fairs to play in the East. Canceled, said the doctor.

RESTS, RELAXES

The Cincinnati cowboy did. He began a regimen of rest and relaxation that wasn't easy for him to endure.

He gave up hunting for skeet and trapshooting and curtailed his performing to seven or eight television hours a year. Gradually he was able to do more. This summer he and Dale went out for a and appreciation of Mr. Starzel's outstanding service."

"During the two concluding decades of his distinguished AP career of 34 years, his performance as an executive and for the past 14 years as chief executive demonstrated a high order of leadership in constructive planning and administration of expansion of AP operations in this country and abroad," McKelway said.

"The directors are gratified that Mr. Starzel continues after retirement to be available in a consultative capacity."

York Springs

YORK SPRINGS — The York Springs Church of God missionary society will hold a bake sale and closetout rummage sale at the parsonage garage Saturday from 10 to 5 p.m.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Whitcomb were Mr. and Mrs. William Heller, Harrisburg and Mrs. Stella Gardner, Carlisle. Mrs. Lovina Thumny and daughter, Mary, Newville, recently visited the former's uncle, George Fickes, and daughter, Marguerite.

Mrs. Earl Rhoads recently entertained at a bridal shower in honor of Miss Dottie Weigle. Guests included Carol Utz and daughter, Carolyn, of Hanover; Mrs. Dean Tate, Idaville; Mrs. Ruth Sherrick and children, Wayne and Beverly, Boiling Springs; Mrs. Richard Keagy and daughter, Linda, Maryland; Mrs. Glenn Weigle and daughters, Patricia and Sandra, Miss Louise Weigle, Miss Sandra Trostle, Mrs. Naomi Everhart, Mrs. Lovina Hoff and daughter, Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reindollar and sons, Donald and David, have moved to the farm of the late Ralph Davis, Mrs. Davis and family.

few fair dates in the East.

"On the way back, I stopped at the Mayo Clinic for a checkup," he said. "The results were excellent. In fact they told me that unless they had known my past history, they would have thought I had always been in perfect health."

He looks good. He'll be 50 next month, but appears younger. "But I've learned to spare myself," he admitted. "I get plenty of rest."

MARINER 2 TO MISS VENUS BY 20,000 MILES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Aeronautics and Space Administration revised earlier estimates for its Venus-bound Mariner 2 today and said the space probe will miss the planet by 20,000 miles instead of 9,000.

The space agency said this is still within the pie-shaped target area extending from 5,000 to 40,000 miles from Venus. "Well within the region where the scientific planetary experiments are expected to be very effective."

In the first report on scientific information gathered by the space probe, NASA scientists disclosed that:

ATMOSPHERIC GAS

1. The rate of flow of very small particles in deep space is at least 1,000 pounds less than that reported by instruments aboard satellites orbiting near the earth. They said this shows that, "We are measuring some sort of concentration near the earth, a fact of significance for man in space programs."

ily moved to the York Springs home vacated by the Ray Reindollar family.

The board of the Methodist Church will meet this Thursday at 8 p.m.

The York Springs Methodist Sunday School will observe Rally Day next Sunday, Oct. 14, at 10 a.m. Mrs. Donald Roemer will be the guest teacher in the children's department; Rev. Amos D. Meyers will address the adults.

2. There apparently always is at least some plasma or atmospheric gas flowing in interplanetary space—at least, there has been for the month of Mariner 2 measurements taken thus far.

3. Measurements taken by the Venus probe are consistent with those taken by Pioneer V, thus tending to support confidence in results obtained by both spacecraft.

MAGNETIC FIELDS

4. In addition to the magnetic fields radiating outward from the sun, there are transverse magnetic fields at right angles to those from the sun. These transverse fields may impede solar radiation.

5. Particle radiation from the sun appears generally to be steady, and strong, more like a solar wind than a solar breeze. This wind is strong enough to stretch out and distort solar magnetic fields.

Dr. Homer E. Newell, director of NASA's Office of Space Sciences, said there is nothing in the findings of Mariner 2 to provide any reason for not going ahead with manned space flight.

The craft was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., Aug. 27. To date the space probe has traveled about 50 million miles. At 10 a.m. EST it was 7.25 million miles from the earth, traveling at a speed of 7,500 miles an hour with relation to the earth or 65,000 miles an hour with relation to the sun, faster than the earth rotates around the sun.

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—A severe earthquake rocked the town of Fasa, 500 miles south of Tehran, Wednesday causing a panic. No damage or casualties were reported.

LLANDUDNO, Wales (AP)—The Conservatives of Prime Minister Harold Macmillan opened an annual conference Wednesday with the aim of presenting a new party image to the voters.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Reginald Maudling highlighted the opening session with a speech intended to show that the Macmillan government is dynamic, progressive and full of ideas to assure a rising living standard in the years ahead.

 - Clarity (suitable and effective use of words) up to 35 points
 - Sincerity (believability) up to 15 points

Judges' decisions are final. Duplicate prizes awarded in case of ties. Only one prize to a family.

RECIPE

1 pkg. lemon or pineapple gelatin
1 c. hot water
1/2 c. cold water
2 tbsp. vinegar
1 can carrots and peas (8 oz.)
1 can flaked tuna (7 oz.)

1/2 c. thinly sliced celery
1/2 c. toasted chopped walnuts (optional)
1/4 c. minced pimiento
16 oz. Pensupreme cottage cheese
Seasonings

Dissolve gelatin in hot water, mix in cold water and vinegar. Chill until thick. Drain carrots and peas, turn into oiled mold and add thickened gelatin to cover. Chill until firm. Combine drained flaked tuna, celery, walnuts, pimiento and cottage cheese and stir in remaining thickened gelatin; spoon into mold on top of set layer. Chill until firm. Serve on crisp greens. Garnish with sliced scallions, cocktail tomatoes, crisp pickle slices as desired. Serves 6.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
HIGHLIGHTS FOR YOUR HAIR. Have you noticed how few are the tresses that shimmer? The dearth of sparkle seems more than ever noticeable since the introduction of smoother hair-styles.

Uncomplicated styling always draws the eye to the beauty of the hair, or the lack of it. You see the hair for what it is, not what it is curled up to be.

That being the case, perhaps we girls should spend some time polishing up our locks. Shining hair is a feminine attribute of which the poets sing. Even the mundane male is not unsuayed by its charms.

The lights in the hair are dimmed by excessive dryness and oiliness, stemming usually from insufficient attention. In any case, the basic steps for overcoming a dull, drab condition are a review of your general health, your shampoo methods and your devotion to a hairbrush and massage.

Do you get enough sleep and outdoor exercise? Does your diet de-emphasize carbohydrates and fats? Do you use a corrective shampoo and rinse? Do you brush daily and massage at least twice weekly? If not, you'd better change your ways and fast.

While awaiting improvement, gloss can be temporarily achieved by surfacing dry hair with pomade. Oily hair responds to a hairbrush covered with clean cheesecloth. Some sprays also provide sheen. But none of those products is a cure. A sleek, gleaming head results from everlasting care.

RULE YOUR WAVES!

What's your hair problem? You'll find a way to overcome it in my 16-page booklet, RULE YOUR WAVES. Advice includes: Beauty treatments for oily, dry and normal hair; ways to manage unruly locks; how to add color and highlights; tips on cutting, permanents and styling; grooming tricks. U.S. PROTESTS SMITH'S CASE

MOSCOW (AP) — The United State has formally protested against last week's detention and manhandling of the assistant U.S. naval attaché, Cmdr. Raymond Smith.

A note delivered to the Soviet Foreign Ministry demanded disciplinary measures be taken against the Soviet officials "involved in this affair" and assurances "there will be no recurrence of violation of the diplomatic immunities of members of the U.S. Embassy staff."

The Soviets, after questioning Smith, accused the naval officer of espionage and expelled him from the country. He left Monday.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman told newsmen Smith was grabbed in a Leningrad public park and said he was doing nothing improper.

The spokesman acknowledged Smith was carrying a camera, binoculars and a small tape recorder, as the Soviets have charged. But the spokesman said "he did not use his binoculars and he did not have his camera out of his pocket."

The embassy spokesman pointed out that Smith was photographed when plainclothes police detained him in the park, and this was proof the incident was a "set up job."
